U. S. Cites Dangers of Detention

Makes New Try For Captive Trio

MOSCOW (AP)— The United States made a new demand today for the release of three American fliers shot down in East Germany and warned that their continued detention jeopardizes U.S.-Soviet relations.

Charge d'Affaires Walter J. Stoessel presented the demand at the Soviet Foreign Office, coupling it with a denial of Soviet charges that the three men were on an espionage mission when their reconnaissance bomber was shot down on March 10.

Jeopardizes Cooperation

An embassy spokesman said Stoessel also warned the Russians that "further delay in release and return of the crewmen clearly jeopardized possibilities for expanding areas of U.S.-Soviet cooperation and can affect present efforts in cooperation in various fields."

The Russians have brushed aside several earlier demands for release of the airmen: Capt. David I. Holland, 35, of Holland, Minn., Capt. Melvin J. Kessler, 30, of Philadelphia, and Lt. Harold W. Welch, 24, of Detroit.

Soviet officials notified U.S. military authorities in Frankfurt Monday that one of the fliers was injured and said an American doctor could visit him.

An Air Force flight surgeon went to the Soviet military hospital at Magdeburg, East Germany. He found Welch suffering from fractures of the right arm and left leg. The Russians refused to release Welch for treatment in the west.

No Data on Others

The Soviets have given no information about Holland and Kessler, who parachuted with Welch when the jet bomber was shot down. They apparently landed safely and are in Soviet custody.

Communist officials in East Berlin have hinted that the three men may be tried as spies.

U.S. officials have insisted that the plane crossed into Communist air space accidentally on a routine training flight. They have also protested its being shot by a Soviet MIG. The Russians claim the American plane ignored a signal to land.

DOWN GO THE SIGNS—New York State Public Works Department workers are shown removing a large sign from the Kingston Arterial Route By-pass, near the Sawkill Road overpass, which was encroaching on the right-of-way. Signs which either obstruct State Highway signs or are encroaching on the right-of-way are removed by the State after the owners fail to remove them following notification that they are encroaching on state right-of-ways or are obstructing state directional signs. The sign shown being removed from the Town of Ulster advertised a Town of Esopus restaurant and motel. (Freeman photo)

To Name Five-Man UR Agency

Bill Authorizing Body Is Signed

Mayor John J. Schwenk said today he plans to name a five-man urban renewal agency within the next few weeks.

A bill authorizing the agency was signed by Gov. Rockefeller Tuesday. Adoption of a state measure followed local enabling legislation Feb. 4 by the Common Council.

The agency to be known as the Kingston Urban Renewal Agency will be directed to carry out mandates of the Common Council and will in no way supersede it.

Functions Listed

Among its main functions will be the acquiring of properties in urban renewal areas, and the borrowing of money from the federal government, if, and when such borrowing is found necessary.

New York State last year authorized establishment of such agencies in communities with urban renewal projects, after it was found that some communities had reached bonded debt limitations. It was found that such an agency was required to permit temporary borrowing from the federal government.

Are Reimbursed

Usually, such borrowing is at the start of UR projects. Communities are later reimbursed by the federal government after projects are under way.

Legislators found it more expedient to authorize creation of such agencies, rather than to deal with more complicated and prolonged legislation.

Members of agencies serve without salary.

Corwin Says No Evidence Now of Narcotics at OCS

District Attorney David W. Corwin today confirmed the findings of an investigation by The Freeman into alleged drug activity in the Onteora Central Schools.

Corwin's statement:

"This office from time to time, had report of alleged drug activity in the Onteora Schools. A recently completed investigation reflected that some children — a very few — were experimenting with a sedative, non-narcotic type of drug, known as Dorodin. Under the mistaken belief that they were the equivalent of "goofballs" — or barbituates.

Disciplinary action has been taken by the school against the students involved and the student responsible for the appearance of the pills in the school has been petitioned in Family Court on a charge of forging a doctor's prescription.

"The investigation also uncovered that some of the youngsters were trying to create the impression of being addicts by passing off anti-hystemine pills, anti-biotic pills, bufferin tablets, etc. as barbituates. As of the present time, there is no evidence of narcotic activity in the Onteora Central Schools."

Woodstock Watched By Agents

Onteora Principal Queried by Press

By CHARLES M. McCARTHY
Freeman Staff Writer

Woodstock is stinging with rumors about possible narcotics operations.

And a prime target has been the Onteora Central School in Boiceville just below Woodstock in the Town of Olive, in which a large segment of the student population hails from Woodstock.

In the wake of recent and persistent rumors about use and distribution of various forms of "dope" ranging from the barbituate "goofball" to the deadly marijuana—the "Big M"—which have run rampant on the subject, the Freeman sought answers to the question:

"Is there any evidence of a narcotics operation in Woodstock?"

Some Answers

"Woodstock has been under suspicion for some time" concerning possible narcotics activity, according to the chief of the Narcotic Control Bureau, State Department of Health.

Town Supervisor Abram F. Molyneaux said, "As far as I know, I am not aware of any ring or pushers as such. Any such evidence is conveyed to the proper authorities by our constables. Any evidence can be 'rumor.' I think our kids go a little way, but I don't know."

"We have no concrete evidence at this time" of any narcotics operation," said law enforcement officials, although they are quick to add that this does not mean that there is no drug activity.

Yes, there was some evidence of use of a non-narcotic type of sedative known as Dordin in OCS, said Superintendent Dr. George R. Sullivan, and disciplinary action has been taken where it was warranted by the school administration. But, he added, "After a pretty long and careful investigation, we are sure there is no evidence of marijuana being used or distributed" in Onteora Central School.

Rumors "Checked Out"

Aware of the wide variety of rumors that hit the popular Ulster County resort township which has a normal population of some 5,000—rumors that ranged from the alleged "dope ring at Onteora Central" to reports of unidentified persons who have knowledge of such operation but hesitate to contact authorities for fear of reprisals—The Freeman conducted its own investigation in an effort to separate truth from fabrication.

Fact or Fiction?

John J. Bellizzi, director of the Narcotic Control Bureau in Albany, told The Freeman that he based his suspicions on Woodstock on two main reasons: Woodstock was reputed as a community which had a minority segment—an "off-beat" group. This group, more in evidence in the summer months, he said, was comprised on a large scale, of certain "non-conforming" characters who by their very nature and makeup would be characteristically suspect of using or dealing in narcotics and its trade. Secondly, he said, there was a large concentration of summer tourist trade involving circulation of both large sums of money as well as wide variety of tourists. "Professionals," then, he said would have a function in narcotics traffic, would be particularly difficult to detect. For instance, an "operator" who was unfamiliar to local, full-time residents, could make "drops" —delivery of drugs to a pusher or even an addict, on a regular basis through the summer—and leave town at season's end without leaving a trace of suspicion.

Reaching for Youth

Adding impetus to speculation a round "dope rings" among school children—again alluding to OCS—was the growing concentration on the use of sedatives, barbituates and even narcotics among this category.

In fact, Bellizzi said in a talk here before the Kingston Lions Club on March 3, that "there is a great cause for alarm" in narcotics addiction among youngsters. Young addicts, he said are introduced to the "drug habit" through friends and use narcotics because they "want to be part of the crowd."

But why Woodstock? Why not other townships in the coun-

De Gaulle Courts Latin America

Wants French to Show Influence in Region

MEXICO CITY (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle proposes that France and Mexico join in a big exchange program but says it wouldn't cut into Mexican relations with the United States.

De Gaulle told a joint session of the Mexican Congress Tuesday that Latin America is forging into "the foreground of the stage of world affairs." He made clear that he wants to increase French influence in the region.

Proposes Exchanges

The 73-year-old French leader suggested Mexico and France begin a large-scale program of scientific, cultural and technical exchanges and become "true and good companions in the work of civilization."

"Without a doubt such a rapprochement implies that the aim, the attitude, the action, in a word the policy of Mexico City and Paris, should not only be prevented from diverging but should actually be attuned," he said.

Before Congress and at a presidential luncheon at the National Palace, De Gaulle tried to ease fears in Washington that his visit might affect the closeness of U.S.-Mexican relations.

Not Aimed at U. S., He Says

Any special relations between Mexico and France, he said at the luncheon, are not intended "to put an end or even to diminish the relations that bind us to our neighbors."

Before Congress he spoke of "Mexico which, without in any way underestimating the fact that her massive relations with her great northern neighbor are both natural and fertile, still feels attracted toward the European countries by all kinds of affinities and, in the first place, may I dare add, attracted to my own country."

Attends Dinner

De Gaulle concluded his second busy day in Mexico by attending an elegant candlelit dinner in a Spanish setting. He, President Adolfo Lopez Mateos and their wives dined on pigeon, crab salad and champagne on a gallery overlooking a patio filled with 2,000 guests.

De Gaulle and Lopez Mateos planned a third round of private talks today, followed by the signing of a joint communique. It was expected to deal mainly with commercial, cultural and possibly political ties.

De Gaulle ends his four-day state visit Thursday and will stop off at French colonies in the Caribbean before returning to France.

Three Others Suspended

KHS Expels 4 Students For 'Secret' Journal

Four Kingston High School students have been expelled until July and three others suspended until further notice, as the penalty for participating in in the publication of a "secret" newspaper that was sold to students, according to Supt. of Schools Dr. W. Wendell Hoover.

Two Choices

Dr. Hoover said the four students expelled, if they chose, may attend summer school for examinations, or they may be transferred by their parents to another school. He noted the three under temporary suspension, will not be permitted to attend classes until further notice.

The decision to expel the four students and suspend the three, was reached by the high school administration and representatives of the staff, it was explained by a school official. The action was advised by Dr. Hoover after a thorough study of the situation.

Indulged in Vulgarities

The publication, which reportedly was to be published bimonthly, indulged "extensively in vulgarities," an official commented. It was described as a crude job of typing and duplication.

'Good Students' Involved

Replying to a question by a reporter regarding reports that some honor students were involved in the matter, Dr. Hoover said, "There were some good students involved." The names of the students expelled or suspended were not disclosed.

It was learned from an authoritative source that the articles published in the newspaper were not signed, and there were no names that would indicate those responsible for the editorial policy of the paper.

The "vulgarities" reportedly published in the paper related to the school administration and teachers.

Dr. Hoover confirmed a report that the paper was published and circulated without the knowledge or sanction of the school administration or staff members.

It was reported that those responsible for the paper intended definitely to keep secret the names of the writers of articles published. Another definite indication of a cloak of secrecy was noted in a caution published in the paper "please do not reveal the name of the person who sold this paper." The paper sold for 10 cents.

Four 'Seriously Involved'

It was learned from an authoritative source that some of the students involved are members of prominent city families.

The four students expelled were "seriously involved" in the publication of the paper.

Firemen Called To Three Blazes, One Is at Plaza

Fire Chief James M. Brett today again emphasized the value of sprinkler systems after one in the newly built Britt Department Store in the Kingston Shopping Plaza, still under construction, prevented costly damage.

Firemen were called three times within an hour this morning, and two calls came simultaneously at 10:37 a. m., one for a brush fire in St. Mary's Cemetery, and another for a cellar fire at 189 Pine Street.

Refuse Catches Fire

The call for the department store blaze came at 10:58 a. m. Chief Brett said a heavily loaded bin of refuse caught fire in the store. Some smoke and water damage was reported in a stock room. The entire building was lightly charged with smoke.

Refuse also caught fire in the cellar of the Charles Costa house, 189 Pine Street, and caused considerable damage in the basement area. The fire, the chief said, is believed to have started from an oil tank leak. Firemen were still standing by at the house early this afternoon, and they remained for some time at the department store.

Sprinklers Helped

The brush fire in St. Mary's Cemetery caused no widespread damage.

Chief Brett emphasized that the activated sprinkler head in the new uptown department store, not yet open for business, prevented what could have been a serious fire. Personnel in the store preparing for its opening next month were not forced to leave other areas of the store other than that in which the fire originated.

City Public Works Complimented on Work During Storm

Superintendent Charles J. Cole, of the public works department and public works personnel were commended in a recent letter for their work during the recent ice storm which caused damage throughout the city and in nearby areas.

The letter from Lelan F. Sillin Jr., president of the Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corp., said:

"I want to extend the appreciation and congratulations of the Central Hudson organization for the outstanding work of your department during the emergency created by the ice storm this week.

"Your efforts in responding to reports of fallen wires, in clearing roads, in sanding and salting roads and in erecting caution and detour signs and in the close coordination of your work with Central Hudson crews all contributed greatly to both assuring the public safety and allowing service restoration work to proceed efficiently and quickly.

"Your response to this challenge is an outstanding example of the ideal of public service to which you and your associates are dedicated."

GEORGE M. RAYMOND

Port Ewen Will Hear Address by Planning Expert

George M. Raymond, of the firm of Raymond & May, Kingston planning and urban renewal consultants, it was announced today, will be guest speaker at the annual dinner meeting of the Port Ewen Businessmen's Association April 2.

The event will be held 7:30 p. m. at the Capri Restaurant, Port Ewen. New officers for the coming year will be installed also.

Raymond and his associate Richard May Jr. appeared before the Ulster County Board of Supervisors recently and it was through their presentation that the county planning board was established.

Designed for 4 Counties

In 1962, they participated in the preparation of a sketch plan for a four-county Mid-Hudson West Region for the state office for regional development. Counties included were Ulster, Rockland, Orange and Sullivan.

A 1946 graduate of Columbia University, Raymond has been lecturer in planning at the University and is currently chairman of the planning department of Pratt Institute, a post he has held since 1958.

He is director of Citizens Housing and Planning Council of New York and Association for Middle Income Housing of Westchester. Raymond has been consultant for the New York City Rezoning Study and senior planner for plan for rezoning New York City, as well as president of the Metropolitan Committee for Planning.

KeepingDynamite In Chicken Coop Brings Jail Term

Charged with improper storage of 10 sticks of dynamite and a quanity of blasting caps, Robert Stoff, 45, of Box 50, Mt Marion, was arrested Tuesday by State Troopers Norman Kilfoyle and Robert Houghtaling.

Stoff later pleaded guilty to the violation of Section 452 of the State Labor Law before Justice of the Peace William D. Brinnier, Town of Saugerties, and received a 30-day sentence in the county jail.

According to authorities children had been seen playing with dynamite caps and Kingston state police investigated.

It was reported that 10 sticks of dynamite and the blasting caps were found stored in a chicken house on Stoff's property. The building was not designated as an approved magazine storage and the defendant had no license.

Stoff, it was reported, told troopers he had planned to use the explosives to remove tree stumps from his property.

Plane Loss to U. S. Over $1.8 Billion in Three Years

WASHINGTON (AP) — More than $1.8 billion in U.S. military planes have been lost or badly damaged in crashes over the past three years, it was learned today.

Pilot error and "material failure" were listed as the chief causes in more than 2,000 major military aircraft accidents in 1961-1963.

This data was contained in an analysis provided by the Defense Department. The Associated Press asked the report in connection with a running dispute over the relative reliability of missiles and manned aircraft.

Critics of U.S. missiles systems have suggested, among other things, that there is much more assurance about the reliability of manned aircraft because of many years of experience and thousands and thousands of flights.

The Pentagon report said the Air Force suffered some 1,100 major accidents over the past three years causing damage totaling $1.1 billion. This averages out to about $1 million per accident.

During that same period more than 900 Navy and Marine Corps planes sustained major damage or were destroyed. The dollar estimate: something over $700 million.

The Army, which uses mainly helicopters and other relatively inexpensive aircraft, reported more than 200 major accidents with $27 million in damages.

In a rundown of causes, the Navy said human error was responsible for 60 per cent of all accidents to Navy and Marine Corps aircraft. Pilot error was blamed for 48 per cent and 12 per cent by "other persons."

Material failure accounted for 28 per cent, weather base facilities and miscellaneous causes the rest.

The Air Force said pilot error caused 31 per cent of its accidents, material failure 39 per cent, weather 1 per cent, maintenance 8 per cent, supervision 5 per cent and the remainder undetermined and miscellaneous.

Army statistics, which were not broken down, were reported to show crew error as a main cause of accidents, material failure as the second cause and maintenance and weather fol-

Ellenville GOP Wins; Contests In Three Villages

Spirited contests highlighted annual elections Tuesday in two of the five incorporated villages in Ulster County.

Only one contest was reported in one of three nearby Dutchess village elections.

GOP Wins In Ellenville

Republicans scored a victory at Ellenville where voters reelected incumbent trustees. They were DeWitt E. Clinton, who received 604 votes, and Jerome Z. Elkin, who polled 621. Democratic candidates and the vote were Donald Strouse, 463, and Daniel Richman 409.

Village Police Justice Frank Decker, Republican, was returned to office for another term. He was unopposed and received 861 votes. Mayor Eugene Glusker remains the lone Democrat on the world.

Arthur Mulligan, People's Party candidate, was reelected as trustee in the Village of Rosendale for a second full term. He defeated the Democratic candidate Charles Collins by a vote of 161-47.

Saugerties voters reelected three incumbent trustees, Arthur York, who polled 279 votes, Robert Moser 273 and Cornelius Cox 269. The three were unopposed.

Had Endorsement

James Smith Jr., who had the endorsement of the Republicans and Union Party, was elected a village trustee in Pine Hill. He was unopposed and polled 12 on the GOP line and 11 on the Union line.

No village election was scheduled in New Paltz because all village officers had switched over to four-year terms some time ago.

In Red Hook, the Independent Party incumbents defeated the

Will Cross Line to Defend Against Pakistan Says Nehru

NEW DELHI, India (AP)— Prime Minister Nehru told a cheering Parliament today that Indian troops will cross the cease-fire line in Kashmir if necessary to defend Indian territory against Pakistan.

"We are not prepared to go across the cease-fire line and attack the territory now under Pakistan occupation," Nehru said, "but obviously if it becomes necessary in the defense of our territory for them (Indian troops) to cross the line, then they will cross it."

Nehru's statement was the strongest made by any top official since the recent outbreak of skirmishing and raids across the cease-fire line in the disputed Himalayan state.

India and Pakistan fought over Kashmir in 1948 and have been quarreling over the state ever since.

Commenting on charges that the Pakistan government is instigating the border clashes, Nehru said: "I know it is a regular campaign."

Defense Minister Y.B. Chavan told Parliament 25 Pakistanis raided an Indian village 1½ miles on India's side of the cease-fire line Sunday night, killing four persons, including an 11-ear-old boy.

Chavan said India had lodged a complaint with U.N. observers in Kashmir.

The Indian government has learned that Communist China and Pakistan have agreed to coordinate foreign and military policies affecting India, a high government official told The Associated Press earlier today.

The official, who declined to be quoted by name, said in an interview that India is revamping its policy on the assumption that in the future it will face two hostile neighbors working together rather than separately.

This indicated that the Indian government is discounting the possibility of making a separate diplomatic deal with either Pakistan or Communist China to relieve the pressure on at least part of its northern border.

Premier Chou En-lai of Red China visited Pakistan last month and won a pledge of close cooperation from President Mohammad Ayub Khan, but there was no public mention of any military or diplomatic collaboration.

Merchants May Form Corp. to Develop UR

A committee to investigate the possibility of establishing an urban renewal development corporation, was named Tuesday night by the Rondout Area Businessmen's Association at a meeting in the Recreation Center, 97 Broadway.

Raymond Cwill, of Ray's Riverside Rest, Ferry Street, was elected president of the association. He succeeds Manuel Lipton, of the Defender Gas & Oil Co., East Strand.

Other officers are: Morris Tucker, of the Live Poultry Market, East Strand, vice president; Marvin Millens, of B. Millens Sons, East Strand, secretary, and James Norton, of the Rondout Savings Bank, treasurer.

The committee on the urban renewal proposal will survey conditions in the Broadway East urban renewal project area, and determine if they are favorable to the extent of enabling area businessmen to incorporate as the developer of the planned shopping district.

The committee was requested to report its findings and recommendations at the association's April meeting. Named on it were: Elmore Yallum, of M. Yallum Sons Inc., 12 Broadway, chairman; James Roberts, of the B&S Market, Broadway and Mill Street; Morton Levine, Levine Brothers Bag Co., Mill Street; Anthony Erena, of the downtown post office; William Buddenhagen, of the Rondout Savings Bank and the association president, Raymond Cwill.

But Tighter Scrutiny Ahead

NYRA Tax Help Seen By Mahoney Support

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Powerful support from a Republican legislative leader virtually assured today renewal of a major tax concession for the New York Racing Association.

But tighter scrutiny by the state appeared in store for the association, along with a 14-year extension of the tax concession.

The association, under attack for what Democrats call conflicts of interest, is a non-profit group that operates the Aqueduct, Belmont and Saratoga race tracks.

Important Backing

It received important backing Tuesday when Senate Majority Leader Walter J. Mahoney indicated his support of a measure to continue a 1 per cent annual tax break.

But the same measure, introduced yesterday, also provides that:

— Financial operation of the NYRA be subject to audit by the state comptroller.

—The association be required to obtain competitive bids for construction and improvement contracts whenever the State Racing Commission so orders.

—The association's franchise fee be tripled, to $3,000 a day—an annual increase of $500,000—and this levy be reviewed from time to time by the Legislature to see if the figure is adequate.

Share 15 PC Levy

The association and the state share a 15 per cent levy on the betting handle at the three tracks. Under basic state law, the state gets 11 per cent at Aqueduct and Belmont, 10 per cent at Saratoga. The association receives 4 and 5 per cent, respectively.

In 1957, however, the state raised the association's share to 5 per cent at the New York City tracks and 6 per cent at Saratoga to help finance improvements. That tax relief was to end in 1965.

But, when the NYRA sought this year, to extend through legislation the tax relief to 1979, it came under fire from Sen. Seymour Thaler, D-Queens.

He charged that trustees of the association had awarded contracts without competitive bidding to fellow members of the exclusive Jockey Club and Turf and Field Club. Thaler also assailed the financial practices of the association. He said its reserves were too large and the state should take over some of them.

The state comptroller's office examined the association's financial operations at Mahoney's request.

The audit confirmed that contractors doing business with NYRA belonged to the two clubs in which members of NYRA officials also were members.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1937, the consolidated school in New London, Tex., was destroyed by an explosion of natural gas. The blast occurred 10 minutes before dismissal and killed 455 pupils and teachers.

In 1766, England repealed the Stamp Act.

In 1837, the 22nd president of the United States, Stephen Grover Cleveland, was born in Caldwell, N.J.

In 1911, former President Theodore Roosevelt formally opened Roosevelt Dam in Arizona.

In 1945, the U.S. 3rd and 7th armies drove deeper into the Saar Basin in a new power thrust during World War II.

In 1953, the first shift of a major league baseball franchise in half a century took place when Lou Perini transferred his National League club to Milwaukee from Boston.

Five years ago — President Dwight D. Eisenhower signed legislation admitting the territory of Hawaii to the Union as the 50th state.

One year ago — President John F. Kennedy was given a tremendous welcome when he arrived in San Jose, Costa Rica, for two days of conferences with the presidents of six Central American states.

NEW YORK (AP)—Columbia University's School of Engineering and Applied Science, which will celebrate its 100th anniversary Nov. 15, 1964, started life in the cellar rooms of a former deaf and dumb asylum on Columbia's old 49th Street campus. $43,636 Collected Here in Underpaid Minimum Wages

ALBANY — Nearly $1,300,000 was collected last year—$43,636 in Ulster County — in minimum wage underpayments by the State Labor Department, an all time high.

State Industrial Commissioner M. P. Catherwood, who today announced the record year figures in minimum wage underpayment collections, said the total — $1,298,944—was received from 8,216 establishments, involving 30,865 workers.

The 1963 figure was $12,565 higher than the $1,286,379 collected in 1962. In 1962 the collections were made from 8,681 establishments and involved 35,819 workers.

In Ulster County, a total of $43,636, was collected from 87 establishments for 844 workers involved, according to Assistant Industrial Commissioner Edward J. Ray.

The Labor Department's Division of Labor Standards, the agency responsible for enforcement of the state's minimum wage regulations, makes regular visits to establishments throughout New York State, and where an employe is found to be receiving less than the minimum wage required by law, the difference is computed as an underpayment. The department has the authority to collect the underpayment from the employers and turns them over to the workers.

Without batting an eyelash, she replied: "And I couldn't help noticing how fast you found the well-trodden path, your reverence."

PSC Authorizes Phone Merger of 10 Independents

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The Public Service Commission today authorized 10 Upstate independent telephone companies to merge into a new utility to be known as the Iroquois Telephone Corp.

At the same time, the commission gave permission for the Continental Independent Telephone Corp., a new holding company, to acquire the voting stock of Iroquois.

To Serve 13,000

The merger will result in a company serving about 13,000 subscribers throughout 18 exchanges in various parts of the state.

Six of the companies in the merger are owned by Independent Telephone Corp., with headquarters at Dryden.

They are the Allegany Telephone Co., Inc.; Dryden Telephone Corp.; the Fillmore Telephone Co., Jasper-Steuben Telephone Corp., Sanborn Telephone Co. Inc., and the West Valley Telephone Co.

Control of the other four is now held by William B. Harrison, who also is president of Independent. The other four are the Caroline Farmer's Telephone Co., Inc., Hammondsport Telephone Co., Cato and Meridian Telephone Co., and the Pulteney - Branchport Telephone Co.

Covers 12 Counties

The merger affects operations in Steuben, Allegany, Wyoming, Cortland, Tompkins, Livingston, Cattaraugus, Tioga, Cayuga, Onondaga, Wayne and Yates counties.

The commission said the existing rates of the 10 companies would remain the same after the merger.

The move is aimed at reducing annual operating expenses by $60,000.

The merger is to be effected through the issuance of 66,524 shares of common stock by Iroquois. These would be exchanged on the basis of the respective book values of the 10 companies.

SERVING AROUND THE WORLD—World War 1 era poster demonstrating value of poster art and bulletin forms used to recruit manpower and unified strength in time of emergency, is center of attraction in current display in windows of Kingston Savings Bank on Wall Street. Poster was donated by Frederic Snyder, Kingston world traveler, author and lecturer, to Ulster County Chapter, American Red Cross, in conjunction with chapter's 1964 campaign. Observing the display from the left, are Mrs. Walter Hubbard, executive director, County ARC Chapter; Mr. Snyder, Orvil Norman, chapter publicity chairman, and Attorney Lloyd R. LeFever, president of the bank. Other posters on display show similar appeals in 1943 for World War 2, and 1953, Korean War. (Freeman photo)

Red Cross Display Shows Posters in Promotion Work

The dramatic role played by poster art and bullein forms in the recruiting of persons and energies in wars in which America was involved, is pointed up in a current display in the windows of the Kingston Savings Bank.

In conjunction with the 1964 Red Cross campaign, a 1919 painting which was donated by a leading Kingston citizen to the Ulster County Chapter, is featured in the bank's display. The painting by Thomas Tryon and posed by Alice Witkor, was owned by Frederic Snyder, world traveler, author and lecturer.

Helped in Crises

The vital part played by such poster art during years of such crises has become recognized as an historical fact. Some of the most distinguished artists dedicated their skills to victory. New forms of color printing were devised. The extensive use of posters formed a colorful page in American history; a fact recognized by President Wilson, General Pershing and the allied powers.

Long before the declaration of war in 1917, Snyder served as a Security Force executive director. He was among the first to discover their selective value. Since, in a deft manner some posters were designed to serve the enemy, all posters came under close scrutiny. As a result, Snyder came into possession of one of the most extensive poster collections in the country. Most of these were on public exhibition, often for the benefit of the Red Cross. A short while ago, many were on display in the New York State Armory under the enterprise of the First Howitzer Battalion, 156th Artillery, New York Army National Guard.

Snyder Has Collection

Most of these posters are now under the care of officials at the U. S. Military Academy, West Point. A few of the exceptional ones were kept by Snyder. One of these, the one donated to the local RC chapter for the bank display, contains the signature of the Alice Witkor, who posed for the portrait which is visible in the center of the picture.

PLANE 'INCIDENTS'

Another unarmed American plane, a reconnaissance bomber this time, has been shot down over East Germany. Happily, its three crewmen parachuted to safety.

Not so lucky were the three aboard an unarmed trainer shot down six weeks before, also over East Germany. Their deaths made a total of 80 Americans killed since 1950 in incidents involving U.S. planes and Iron Curtain territory.

Such "incidents" make headlines for a time. Then, except for the friends and families of those immediately involved, they apparently are forgotten and the dead written off as cold war casualties.

If the war stays cold, it is because the heat degenerated at the friction points where the two systems rub against one another is allowed to dissipate, even if that heat consumes a few human lives.

We are told that this is the reality of our time. But that does not make it easy to accept. So we put aside patriotism and righteous indignation and seize upon excuses: The planes did violate borders; the the Russians apparently did give them fair warning; the latest plane was designed for photo reconnaissance; survey of their domains is an extremely raw nerve in the Russian make-up.

We try to understand but, fundamentally and ultimately, we cannot. We can only hope that somehow these deaths will be redeemed, not by revenge but by building a world where such things no longer happen.

THE FORMS THAT IRK

About this time of year the usual plaints of taxpayers fill the land: What form must I use, Schedule C, 1040 or 1040A? Or maybe a 1096? And should the 2440 be attached to schedule B or F? Even so, once you have solved the proper form problem, that is only a starter. After that comes the real sweat—working out the figures.

All this is agonizingly familiar to the man who must file an income tax return. That the process has become ridiculously complex is beyond debate. Consider, for example, the recent photo of Mortimer Caplin. Here pictured was the commissioner of the Internal Revenue Service himself, in shirtsleeves, scowling as he tried to puzzle out his own return.

Granted there are simplified forms. Even filing these can be a chore to many. And the homeowner or the small businessman, who must virtually lay his soul bare to the IRS, is quickly inundated by statistics and receipts.

Nor is there any sign that this annual (quarterly to some) ritual is getting any easier. Congress had an excellent opportunity to reform and simplify taxes at this session, but muffed the job. How long can reform be delayed? Something ought to be done soon. For each year tax season casts a pall on spring.

DETROIT RELUCTANCE

Auto makers have at last set a target date for complying with California law which requires that all new cars sold in that state be equipped with a device to curb exhaust fumes. The target date is the fall of 1966, two and a half years hence.

This is gratifying news. Gratification is somewhat tarnished, however, by the slow response of the Automobile Manufacturers Association. The law has been on the books since 1959. Although perfection of an antifumes device required time, there are indications that this problem could have been dealt with more quickly had the auto industry been more concerned about the public welfare.

The same stricture applies when it comes to safety devices. Independent research has developed a great deal more knowledge about engineering safety than has yet been built into automobiles.

Autmobiles are vitally important to our economy. No one wants to upset this golden applecart. But a little more evidence of interest in making autos safe as well as fast and glamorous would be welcome.

'These Days'

HOMOGENIZING THE WORLD

President John F. Kennedy wanted to see the world made safe for diversity. But we don't seem to be headed that way. If you ask me, everybody is getting so sensitive about even the mildest expressions of difference that it will soon become impossible to make drama or literature out of anything ethnic, religious, or even psychological.

My fellow perpetrator of columns, Robert C. Ruark of North Carolina, Spain, Kenya and the way stations, has been bewailing the fate of his performing friend, Dorothy Loudon, who has been stopped by the League for Homogenizing Our Culture, or something of the sort, from singing funny songs about southern cooking. True enough, Rolf Hochmuth's play, "The Deputy," which has been called an insult to the institution of the papacy, managed to reach Broadway in spite of an attempt by various organizations to compel the radio networks to douse their publicity about it. If "The Deputy" is as crude as some critics say it is, it will rightly die of its own badness without the interference of censorship. But other things, far less offensive than "The Deputy," are in danger of being snuffed out by the oversensitive censoriousness that is running like a prairie fire through our society.

In my home town of Chesire, Conn., for example, there is something of a flap about the coming Community Theatre production of the thirty-year old comedy "You Can't Take It With You," by George S. Kaufman and Moss Hart. This hilarious play has grossed some $375,000 in royalties from amateur theatre groups, which I understand, makes it the all-time leader as an amateur circuit money maker. It has never been picketed to my knowledge in its three decades of lively life.

However, the culture homogenizers among us have made everybody so timorous that the Cheshire Community Theatre doesn't know how to handle the two inoffensively comic Negro parts in the play. No Negroes have volunteered to fill the roles, and the board of directors of the theatre is afraid to present them in black face. So the proposal is to substitute a couple of "dumb" Swedes for the Negro maid Rheba and her boy friend Donald.

The trouble here is that the Swedes also constitute an ethnic group. No Swede in my home town has threatened to picket the forthcoming performance. But what if Cheshire were in Minnesota or Wisconsin?

The whole business would be funny if it didn't have its serious undertones. We have had attempts to rewrite Mark Twain's Negro dialect passages in "Huckleberry Finn." And there have been efforts to get the character of Fagin out of Charles Dicken's "Oliver Twist." Even Shakespeare has been condemned as a racist for making Shylock, in "The Merchant of Venice," a Jew. Yet nobody in his right mind ever considered that Mark Twain was anti-Negro, or that Dickens and Shakespeare were anti-Semitic. Similarly, if a couple of comic parts were to be played in black face in "You Can't Take It With You," it would not prove that George S. Kaufman and Moss Hart were secret segregationists.

How silly can we get? In addition to having Negro parts, "You Can't Take It With You" includes a poverty-stricken Russian Grand Dutchess and a "mildly insane" New York family of Dutch antecedents named Vanderof. Nobody has ever insisted that amateur companies must find Russians to take Russian parts or Dutchmen to act as Dutchmen. But this will probably come next.

The DOCTOR SAYS

In Defense of Drug Firms: They're Samaritans, Too

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Drug companies are in business to make an honest profit. But, like all groups that profit from man's misfortunes, they are often under heavy attack from the government and other sources.

Let's take a look at the other side of the ledger. When an outbreak of botulism, a very severe form of food poisoning, occurred in Kentucky, a drug manufacturer provided a supply of botulinus antitoxin without cost.

This is an example of what is known as a public service drug. The total demand for it is so low that, even though the company may have spent more than $1 million on research and development, it cannot hope to make any money on it. It therefore supplies the product when needed at the cost of production or at no cost at all.

Among the many other examples are an anti-venin for victims of a black widow spider bite, an intravenous solution for persons with acute ammonia poisoning, concentrated fibrinogen for those rare persons whose blood lacks this substance necessary for clotting and an antidote for cyanide poisoning.

In the same general category there is a well-known manufacturer of formulas for infant feeding. After five years of research and the expenditure of more than $85,000, this company developed a formula for infants with phenylketonuria, a disease which, if it is not treated with the proper diet, results in mental retardation.

There are not many children who need this formula; but those who do need it badly. The price has been kept down to the cost of production for the parents of these unfortunate children. After four or five years on the proper diet, the danger is past and the children can return to a regular diet.

This is, however, not the only type of public service our drug manufacturers perform. They provide postgraduate instruction for your doctor in a variety of ways: through sponsoring special courses, lectures, scientific motion pictures, closed circuit telecasting of clinics from teaching hospitals and the publication of scientific reports and surveys. These fringe benefits help your doctor to take better care of you.

None of these services would be possible, however, if the drug companies could not make an honest profit on the everyday drugs needed by thousands of people.

THESE VALUES ARE SOUND

Eager throngs storming a public hall in such numbers the doors have to be locked to keep them out.

Hundreds of people standing patiently in block-long queues to get inside a house.

To see what? A championship sports event? A play that has been banned by censors? An appearance by the Beatles?

No. To see a Flower and Home Show and to inspect a model home.

It happened recently in a large American city. And reports indicate it is happening elsewhere around the country at similar shows.

Somehow, this is comforting in a day when the accent is on trouble and conflict and strife and when you get the impression no one ever plants a garden or flower bed any more, or even bothers to go home unless there's something special on television.

Maybe things are more basically sound and normal than we think.

"I've Got Him Eating Right Out of My Hand!"

Washington News

BY RAY CROMLEY
Washington Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — In individual, furtive approaches, Soviet scientists have been questioning American scientists of late on how they meet their spiritual needs and what they as scientists actually believe about man's aims and God and morality.

These topflight Russians quietly corner the Americans at international conferences, on cultural exchange trips to the United States and in meetings in the Soviet Union.

The Soviet scientists make it clear they are looking for something—a philosophy, a superior being, a moral standard, a purpose—that communism does not supply.

U.S. officials report these contacts are now too numerous to be just the thinking of a few individuals.

"We are beginning to think," says one official, "that there is developing among Soviet scientists a feeling they've got to have something more than communism to live by.

"They're not certain what they want. They often don't speak of it in terms of religion. But it's clear that communism doesn't satisfy their needs."

ONE SOVIET MATHEMATICAL PHYSICIST recently told an American privately that his Soviet sociologist colleagues had told him they had discovered there was a direct relationship between the number of churches and the amount of juvenile delinquency in the Soviet Union—the fewer the churches, the more delinquency. These scientists, he said, recognize there is something there they want to learn more about.

Students in the universities are asking questions like "Why is it necessary to be antireligous?" The same though is being raised in recent novels.

S. Pavlov, first secretary of the Young Communist Central Committee, warns his organization:

"We cannot console ourselves by saying that most of the believers are old people.

"On the Pioneer State Farm in the Vladimir Oblast," says Pavlov, "the priest is infinitely more active in carrying out educational work with the young people than the Young Communist Committee. He goes to dances and even plays dominoes with the lads.

"His young wife also wastes no time. The girls come to her to do dressmaking and obtain her advice on intimate questions. Even Young Communist League member Yury Efimov succumbed and baptized his child."

TO MEET THE PROBLEM, Khrushchev has ordered another drive against religion. He has decreed establishment of an "Institute for Scientific Atheism" and reorganization of the national Soviet network for promoting atheism.

Beginning with the 1964-65 year, every student in universities specializing in medicine, agriculture and education will be required to take a course and pass an examination in "The Bases of Scientific Atheism." New courses on atheism will be introduced into elementary schools. Teaching of atheism will be "modernized." Night classes are being organized.

Government agencies, the press and radio have been told to set up programs for pushing atheistic thinking. Party workers are being given more rigorous training in how to discourage religion.

American analysts think this antireligious drive will boomerang. With scientists, intellectuals and students already questioning Communist tenets, public antireligious debate probably will raise the intensity of their soul-searching.

This questioning by scientists, intellectuals and youth as of now is immature, disorganized and nebulous. But U. S. analysts see in it the beginning of something that could eventually weaken Russian communism from within.

Answering White House, Who's Going to Do It?

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — The White House has let it be known that not only did it not have the slightest objection to the granting of equal time for the expression of an opposition viewpoint after President Johnson's conversation last Sunday over three television networks, but that this idea was conveyed in advance to the broadcasting companies themselves.

The big question, however, for the TV networks to answer was who should be selected as spokesman for the opposition. If any one of the leading contenders was picked, he would not, as things stand today, reflect any consensus of the entire Republican viewpoint. And if all three—Messrs. Goldwater, Rockefeller and Nixon — were invited to speak, their views would have to be coordinated by some influence within the party, not yet identifiable, as wielding any such power of harmonization.

But even if the three critics articulated varying positions, points of difference would be revealed which would enable the nationwide audience to realize that at least there is another side to the controversial issues discussed by President Johnson.

A a matter of fact, the same situation arose in December, 1962, when the late President Kennedy gave an exclusive interview to three newsmen representing the three big radio and television networks. The administration indicated then that it would not object to equal time being furnished to the other side. But except for a few speeches from members of Congress a few days later, there was no presentation over TV such as would be possible if a transcript of the President's remarks were submitted to the opposition for rebuttal on the same day as it was delivered.

Last Sunday's broadcast was taped the day before it was delivered. The interview was originally 80 minutes, and the deletions in the transcript were made to condense the whole thing into a one-hour-long program so as to fit it in with the other TV schedules. Time for editing was made available by deferring the actual broadcasting by 24 hours. It was stated in the press on Monday that broadcasting officials did the editing and deleted what they thought were repetitious and less interesting portions. The newspapers doubtless would have liked to see what was cut out and give it to their readers. Newsmen differ sometimes as to what is less interesting.

The problem is not a new one. This correspondent, in a dispatch on Dec. 20, 1962 — a few days after President Kennedy's similar conversation over three television networks — wrote that the Republican National Committee planned to ask for equal time but hadn't made up its mind who the actors in the show would be. Rep. Emanuel Celler of New York, Democrat, had urged the networks to refuse "categorically" any requests for equal time. He said it would "set a most dangerous precedent." He contended, moreover, that Mr. Kennedy was not a political candidate. The same dispatch said:

"Technically, of course, the 1964 political campaign hasn't started and there are no formal candidates, but actually the campaign is already under way. President Kennedy really has begun to campaign actively for reelection. Almost every move he makes nowadays is based on its possible impact on the voters during the next 22 months. Every opportunity for publicity is sought. The latest example is the unprecedented interview on radio and television over all three major networks for a full hour last Monday night.

"The President could have given every bit of this information at a regular news conference, but it would not have been dramatic enough nor subject to previous editing. . . .

"The biggest advantage of all to Mr. Kennedy, however, is that he manages by this method to prevent any rebuttal on the same night that he gets full coverage of his views over the television networks. It is not like the 'great debates' of the last Presidential campaign, when the opposite candidate was at least given a chance to answer point by point. . . .

"It is said they (the three networks) did try to invite national personalities to talk, but there was no way by which the latter could prepare themselves for rebuttal the same evening, though the President himself had 24 hours in which he could change the transcript in whatever way he pleased."

There is a simple solution to all this—the Republican party could set up an organized opposition in Washington and designate a spokesman in much the same manner as is done by rival parties in the British Parliament. There the line of argument is agreed upon by the party leaders. Rebuttals thus become those of a party of opposition and not just a series of individual speeches by ambitious individuals seeking high office.

Jim Bishop: Reporter

Dearborn, Michigan — Successful men destroy the time of their youth. When they become rich, they try to buy it back. Henry Ford is a good example. He killed the horse and put the country on wheels. He died bringing the horse and buggy back to Greenfield Village.

The snow was percale white as we drove slowly through the past. The children and I sat behind two husky horses — Dick and Dan — and Kelly pulled her collar tight around her neck. The hooves thudded on the hard snow and the horses breathed long plumes in the cold blue air.

There were blacksmith shops and old pharmacies with big colored jars in the windows, brickyards, forges, log cabins, a cotton gin, a windmill and a covered bridge. Henry Ford put $23,000,000 into the village before he died in 1947. "When we are through," he said, "we shall have reproduced American life as lived . . ."

What he has done is a good thing. He has recaptured the authentic America of his boyhood days. Every beam of every building is exactly right. When he bought the home in which he was born, Henry Ford had every stick brought with it. Thomas A. Edison came here one time to look at the shop in which he had invented the electric light.

"Well," said his friend Henry, Edison, deaf and old, looked up at his skinny round-shouldered confrere. "It's ninety-nine per cent accurate," Edison said. Henry Ford was not amused. "How did we miss by one per cent?" he asked. Edison smiled. "It's cleaner than when I worked in it," he said.

Ford also bought Sarah Jordan's boarding house, and brought it from South Orange, New Jersey, to Greenfield Village. Mrs. Jordan used to feed Edison's assistants. When he invented the mazda bulb, he waited until New Year's Eve 1879 and strung wire from his laboratory to Mrs. Jordan's dining room and, using wet cell batteries, watched the room light up. Now the boarding house is here.

There is nostalgia and sentimentality in all this. There is more than that. There is history and vanity in it. Ford started the village accidentally. He began to collect old things; items which evoked memories. He was seldom far from his huge River Rouge Plant and, when the collector's items became cumbersome, he had to find a place for them.

Dearborn is a suburb of Detroit, and Greenfield is now a public museum. Ford, I think, wanted to show from what humble beginnings he had sprung. He was working in an Edison power plant in Detroit for $45 a month when he got the idea for his horseless carriage. No one can take it from him — he came a long, long way.

His first car is still here. Ford was 33 years of age when he bought a two-cylinder gasoline engine, four bicycle wheels, a chain drive, the front seat of a buggy, an electric bell, two springs, some pipe for an exhaust, a hand brake, and a rod for a tiller. "kicked her over", and started down Bagley Avenue with the wind whistling through his hair at 20 miles per hour.

Any invention is only half a story. The other half is what was done with it. Ford devised mass production as we know it. He blue-printed the conveyer-assembly line, putting an automobile together as it moved slowly down a long factory room. I worked for him in his Kearny Plant when I was a kid. I had to put the upholstery on the front seat, and tuck it under, as the car went by.

It required three weeks for me to discover that I had no time for scratching, so I quit. But he paid well — $5 a day at a time when few men earned that much. I took my money and made a down payment on one of Gaston Chevrolet's whizzers. Ford was a hard man, but more than just to his employees at a time when unions were weak and management was strong.

He made mistakes. Who doesn't? He made Eagle Boats for Uncle Sam in World War I. The first one came off the line about four months before the war ended. Later, he charted a steamer called Oscar II and sent a peace mission to Europe in a forlorn hope that greedy statesmen would listen to an industrialist. He was a reactionary and at one time, was accused of anti-Semitism, although Jews worked without hindrance in his plants.

He's dead 17 years, and orange smoke pours out of his Rouge Plant and Dick and Dan pull tourists through Greenfield Village. There is a black walnut building which interested me. It is the Logan County Courthouse in which Abram Lincoln practiced law from 1840 until 1847. It contains the judge's bench, the gavel, counsel table, clerk's desk and feather quill, and something more: The rocking chair in which Lincoln sat the night he was shot by John Wilkes Booth.

Here also one can find the Wright Brothers bicycle shop from Dayton; 19th century locomotives; early harvesters; a Conestoga wagon; an old time barber shop; a harness shop; red barns; an old railroad station; the first harvesters and sewing machines — spinning wheels and looms.

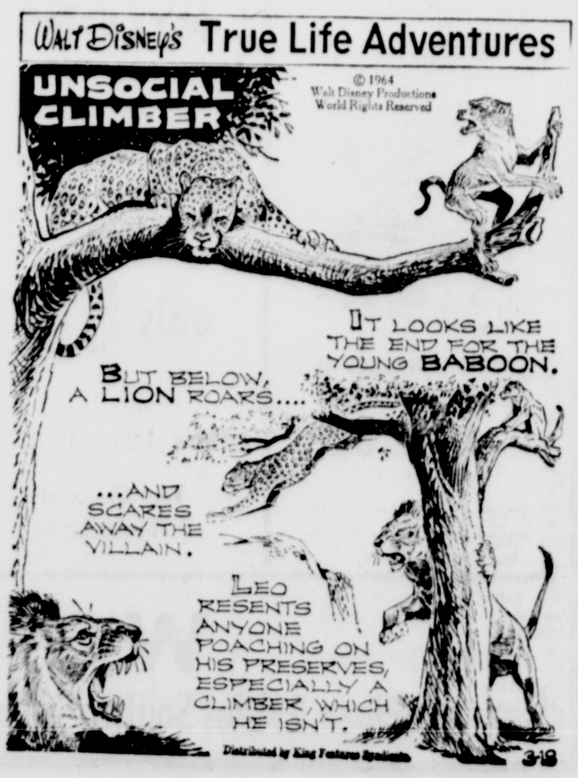

On the second floor of the museum, I found the most revealing keepsake of all. It is a red, lacy heart, the valentine Henry sent to Mrs. Ford on their 50th wedding anniversary. . .

Khanh Starts Talks To Resume Relations With Cambodia, Laos

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—South Viet Nam, Cambodia and Laos have begun negotiations for resumption of diplomatic relations, Premier Nguyen Khanh said today.

Other sources said Khanh met delegations from Cambodia and Laos in the mountain resort of Dalat over the weekend to arrange further negotiations.

Communist Site Out

Khanh told a news conference he is ready to meet with the Cambodian chief of state, Prince Norodom Sihanouk, "at any time, anywhere, except in a Communist country."

"With respect to Laos," Khanh continued, "we are ready to send a representative to Vientiane as soon as possible. We want to normalize diplomatic relations there. We are not like Ngo Dinh Diem, who refused to maintain diplomatic relations with Laos after they recognized North Viet Nam. We are ready to receive the ambassador of Laos in Saigon."

The U.S. government has long urged normal diplomatic relations between Thailand, Cambodia, South Viet Nam and Laos. A U.S. spokesman said today his government "very definitely supports" the negotiations.

Cambodia broke relations with South Viet Nam last August after Diem's police raided Buddhist pagodas in Saigon.

To Cover Frontier

Khanh said the talks with Cambodia would cover current frontier problems, presumably including infiltration of Viet Cong units into South Viet Nam through Cambodia. The discussions also will cover the status of islands in the South China Sea claimed by both Cambodia and Viet Nam.

Sight of Boys May Be Impaired In School Blast

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — The eyesight of two boys may be impaired as a result of a chemical explosion in a high school classroom.

Ernest Zeferjahn, the principal of the school, said the youths apparently were trying to make "a firecracker or bomb or something."

Thomas Davis and Jacob Hastreiter, both 17, were reported in fair condition at Emergency Hospital following the explosion Tuesday in a chemistry class at Hutchinson Central Technical High School.

Each suffered chemical burns around the face, eyes, hands and arms.

A spokesman at the hospital said there was a possibility the youths' eyesight was endangered.

Confirmation Certain

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Senate confirmation is believed certain on the extension of the term of James A. Fitzpatrick of Plattsburgh as chairman of the State Power Authority until May 6, 1969.

Gov. Rockefeller on Tuesday extended Fitzpatrick's term. The chairman and other trustees of the authority are paid $10,000 a year.

Mama-Papa Bid Invites Trumps

BY OSWALD JACOBY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

There is one series of bids that always invites a trump lead. That is the old fashioned one, two, three, four in either spades or hearts.

Thus, in spite of his generally unattractive hand, West should have opened a trump. If he had done so, South would have almost surely wound up going down two tricks. West liked his club holding and decided to open the jack of that suit.

This lead would have given South the hand had East not been right up on his toes, but fortunately for the defense East was.

East's first problem was at trick one. Should he rise with the ace or play the seven spot? East decided to play low on the theory that even if this play allowed South to make a singleton king it might not cost the defense anything.

South won with the king, entered dummy with the ace of hearts and led a low diamond. He hoped West would win the trick, but East had all the high diamonds and was in. It wasn't hard for East to see that it was up to him to lead a trump.

South won and led another diamond. East led a second trump and while South was able to ruff one diamond he had to lose the last one.

Curiously enough, East's first play had not mattered. Had he gone up with the ace of clubs he would have been able to get in three trump leads.

Body Found in Tub

The body of Miss Ruth De Munn about 55, was found Tuesday in the tub in her apartment at the Hotel Markeen. She had been seen last Monday afternoon.

Police said the water had drained from the tub by the time a hotel maid discovered the body.

Weather Solves Problem

CHICAGO (AP) — A suit against a skating rink was dismissed in Circuit Court Tuesday when a judge decided the problem had literally melted away.

Frank P. Lawler sought $5,000 damages and asked the court to close a private skating rink on the grounds the skaters made too much noise and damaged his property.

Judge Cornelius J. Harrington dismissed the case, noting "the unseasonably warm weather has solved the problem by melting the ice."

Suffocates in Cooler

CHICAGO (AP) — A 4-year-old boy decided to finish his afternoon nap in a picnic drink cooler Tuesday.

John Durkin suffocated when the lid snapped tight over him. His mother, Eleanor Durkin, 27, found the lad dead, peacefully curled up in the tiny box, his head resting on his pillow.

Mrs. Durkin said she began searching for John after she put him to bed for his nap and then noticed his bed empty.

Adoptions Are Topic of Women Voters League

Jurisdiction over adoptions, given to the Family Court in Sept. 1962, by the voters of New York State, may continue to be shared by the Surrogate's Court as a result of either of two bills now being considered in Albany.

Jurisdiction over adoptions was one of several subjects discussed March 11 by members of Saugerties Provisional League of Women Voters. The March meeting of the local League was devoted to a comparison of the town and village governments, and the judicial situation of New York State concerning the Family Court, adoptions, and District Courts.

Know Your Town committee chairman, Mrs. Richard Redder, explained to the members that the material concerning the town and village governments would be published in a booklet at the end of the study.

Mrs. Roy Ohno, judicial chairman, presided over the discussion period where the main point of concern centered on the adoption jurisdiction shared by the Family Court and the Surrogate's Court. Since the members of the League were not able to reach any conclusion on this subject it will be discussed further at a later meeting.

During the business meeting reports were given to the membership on the Village Board meetings of March 2 and March 16, Town Board meeting of March 5, and School Board meeting of Feb. 12.

Mrs. Clyde Knauert, president, distributed flyers describing the Legislative Conference she and Mrs. Charles Rice and Mrs. Charles Steele attended in Albany in February. The next meeting of the Saugerties League will be held March 8.

Scout's Weekend Hike Is Second For Merit Badge

The second in a series of 10 and 20 mile hikes, a test for the Hiking Merit Badge was conducted this weekend by 13 Boy Scouts and two leaders from Troop 130 and 39. The route was from Barclay Heights to West Saugerties and return, a distance of 12 miles.

At Veteran the group split into two patrols, each with a leader. One group, using a topographical map and compass took a bee line hike. They proceeded north and then west until they met with the other group at Blue Mountain.

At a camp site there they attempted starting a campfire with the woods still wet from the recent storm. Some of the tenderfoot scouts had difficulty, but all managed to get dinner cooked.

In the afternoon, using maps of the area, they cut cross-country from Blue Mountain to Saugerties on old logging roads. The trip through hemlock forests was quite eventful with many signs of wildlife. A large bear and a coyote were sighted.

Tenderfoot scouts tried stalking tests and several boys passed. One, Joseph Ellis, completed his second class requirements.

Those participating were James Ackert, Dominick Brugnoletti, Terry DelMonte, Joseph Ellis, David Gallenz, Steven Gardner, Dennis Geary, Warren Hornbeck, David Lewis, William Lorenz, Frank Popolardo, Henry Reinewald, John Winchell and leaders, Robert E. Gardner, assistant scoutmaster of Troop 130, and Robert Lynch, scoutmaster of Troop 39.

The next hike is scheduled March 28 to High Woods.

All boys 11 years of age are welcome to join either troop. Troop 39 meets Tuesday 7 p. m. at Flatbush Reformer Church Hall, and Troop 130 meets Friday 7 p. m. at Trinity Episcopal Church Hall, Barclay Heights.

Home Decorating Is Monday Club's Topic This Week

Members attending this week's meeting of Saugerties Monday Club had an opportunity to take part in a program surveying current trends in home decorating, according to Mrs. Joseph H. Rainear Jr., who presented the program. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Milton H. Armstrong.

The program entitled, "Clubwoman's Guide to Good Decorating," stressed the importance of beauty in the home and the need for a gracious and relaxing home atmosphere that will counteract the increased pressures of modern life. Developed specifically for the General Federation of Women's Clubs by Good Housekeeping magazine, the program aimed at providing the clubwoman-homemaker with both inspi. tion and practical advice for creating a beautiful and smoothly functioning home that will meet the emotional and physical needs of her family.

The next regular meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Rainear on March 23.

VFW Auxiliary Slates Election At April Meeting

Election of officers for the Ladies Auxiliary to Saugerties Memorial Post 5034, VFW will take place at the April meeting, according to an announcement made by Miss Hannah Lewis, auxiliary president at last week's meeting.

Installation will be held in conjunction with the Post and new Junior Unit in May. Officers will assume their duties in June following the state convention.

An American flag will be presented to the newly formed Camp Fire group, Oki-Zu, compliments of the Auxiliary who sponsor them. A formal ceremony will be scheduled in the near future.

Hudson Valley County Council, VFW meeting is slated for April 5 in New Paltz. All chairmen were requested to make reports to the council chairman before that time.

Help will be needed by the banquet chairman, Mrs. Mary Breithaupt for the Chief's Night dinner catered by the Auxiliary on March 31. Post and Auxiliary members are asked to make a special effort to serve this, the biggest banquet of the season. Contact Mrs. Breithaupt to offer assistance.

Mrs. Anna Kimble was ceremoniously received into the group and received her oath of obligation from the Chaplain Mrs. Ethel Jehle.

Mrs. Jehle also stated that the community service scrap book was ready to be mailed to be entered into the VFW state competition.

On the sick list is Thomas Patterson at the Albany Veterans Administration Hospital. Drewes is now at home following a hospital stay.

Sixty-five baskets of fruit and cookies were distributed to hospitalized vets at Castle Point Sunday during the annual VFW Day. All patients were visited by the VFW members from the Dutchess and Ulster County Posts and Auxiliaries. Also included in the Saugerties contribution were special baskets prepared for the diabetic patients which consisted of personal items.

Mrs. Ruth Prendergast, hospital chairman, and a group of local members left the VFW Hall at 1 p. m. Mrs. Stella Potts provided musical entertainment. Special favors made by the girls of Camp Fire group Oki-Zu, were tied to each basket.

A complete Loyalty Day report was given. All were strongly urged to sell tickets to the fund raising affair, the German-Irish Nite at the high school auditorium on April 4. Since this is the prime source of meeting the Loyalty Day budget, it is important that the goal be reached in order to support the parade and cash prize awards of the essay contest.

Vols Discuss Liability Law on Outside Calls

Several matters of importance to volunteer firemen were discussed Tuesday night at the March meeting of the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association meeting at Centerville firehouse where the Association was guest of the Centerville, Cedar Grove and Saxton Fire Companies. Among the matters was a discussion of the law governing liability in instances where firemen are summoned outside their own area, use of the white light on equipment and Ulster County Day at the Hudson Firemen's Home.

33 Companies Represented

With 33 companies and approximately 125 members present the firemen were welcomed by Charles Sherwood, president of the Centerville Fire Company. Presiding at the meeting was Herbert Faurote, president of the County Association.

A matter which has been under discussion for some time is the question of who is responsible for injuries or death of a volunteer fireman who goes outside his own area to assist at a fire. Under a new provision of the law effective March 1, 1964, the Home area is responsible, except in a few specific instances, for any injury which a volunteer fireman may suffer in line of duty when he is called outside his own area to give assistance. The provisions of the law were discussed and explained.

Impressed With Group

Robert Mammoser of Hamburgh, who was on a trip in the area, attended the meeting as a guest and expressed his amazement over the efficient manner in which the local organization conducted its business meeting. He expressed particular interest in the Ulster County Fire Prevention program and praised the local firemen for their effective program.

A report on Ulster County Day at the Hudson Firemen's Home was given by Henry Ulrich. This event is being resumed after a 25-year halt in the program and will be held Sunday, Aug. 23, with the program beginning at 2 p. m. Entertainment will be provided during the afternoon by the Ulster County Group.

Clarence Coniker and Merrill Williams of Pioneer Engine Company of Ellenville were added as members to the Ulster County Day committee.

James Hicks reported that Mary Dolan of the Academy of St. Ursula has been selected as honorary fire chief for April as a result of the essay contest.

Clean-Up Week Set

Hicks, chairman of the Fire Prevention committee, also reported that the annual Clean-up Week would be held during the week of April 12-18 during which residents are urged to conduct a spring clean-up drive and eliminate the possibility of future fires in refuse and debris which has collected during the winter months.

Charles Peterson for the convention committee, reported for the entertainment committee that the annual banquet and entertainment program would be Thursday, Aug. 6, at Sportsmen's Park, Rosendale, and that July 24 would be the deadline for making reservations. Tickets, Peterson reported, would be sold only to members whos dues are paid and they are in good standing.

Thus far 24 companies have signed for the parade, together with 13 musical units. The parade will be held Saturday, August 8, at 5 p. m. in Rosendale.

To Elect Aug. 7

The annual business session will be held on Friday, August 7, at which time officers for the ensuing year will be elected and convention business transacted.

Elected to membership in the county association were Douglas Alexander of St Remy and Robert Holtz of Ellenville.

Prior to adjournment there was a lengthy discussion on the use of a white light on fire apparatus and equipment and by volunteer firemen. The matter will be taken up with the sheriff's department and law enforcement officers.

The April meeting will be held on April 21 at Kripplebush.

N. Y. State Police Lists Promotions

Appointment of two members of the New York State Police as lieutenants was announced today by Superintendent Arthur Cornelius Jr.

The appointments of Sr. Inv. C. Richard Samson and Z/Sgt. H. J. Urnaitis will become effective March 19. Three lieutenant transfers are also effective then.

Samson, now at Troop K headquarters, Hawthorne, will fill the Bureau of Criminal Investigation vacancy at State Police Headquarters, Albany, resulting from the recent death of Lt. George Craig, who held the post.

The other vacancy as a lieutenant resulted from the retirement of Lt. Charles Curtin last month. He had been assigned to Troop D, Auburn.

Urnaitis will be assigned to Troop B in charge of the Canton zone. He is now at New Hartford, Troop D.

Lt. Francis J. Reid of Catskill now at Canton, will be transferred to Troop K in charge of the Putnam Valley zone.

Lt. William F. Perrin, now at Putnam Valley, will be reassigned to the Oneonta zone of Troop C.

Lt. Robert F. Barry, currently at Oneonta, will be transferrd to Troop D to fill the Auburn vacancy.

New Cut Likely

WASHINGTON (AP)—A further reduction appeared possible today in the amount of money Congress will authorize for Seneca Indians whose land will be flooded by construction of a dam.

One congressional source said the Senate Interior Committee, meeting today, would be asked to cut $4 million from the $9-million bill under consideration. The House had voted for $20 million.

School Is . . .

ty? Is'nt the problem as great elsewhere?

Law enforcement officers say that more than any other of the county's 20 townships, Woodstock has been mentioned as a possible source of "dope" operation. At least the "rumors" of suspected operations are far greater there per centage-wise than in any other highly-populated area, they say.

The OCS Story

Dr. Sullivan, Onteora Central superintendent, in an exclusive interview with The Freeman, confirmed that six pupils were involved in a recent case involving suspected use of a drug of some kind. The drug in that case, he said, was Dorodin, a non-narcotic sedative which is obtainable only through a doctor's prescription.

Of the six youngsters involved, all of whose legal rights and rights of protection for themselves and their parents were executed under the law, two were re-instated after temporary suspension. Two others, also temporarily suspended were not expelled, but were not in school.

A fifth pupil was completely absolved of any connection with the case, he said. And the sixth pupil was under temporary suspension but, because of his age either must return to school or face expulsion — which comes under the jurisdiction of the Board of Education.

Up to this time, Dr. Sullivan said, none of the pupils has been expelled.

Family Court Action is pending in the case, the superintendent said. Under law, names and papers in the case are not public record.

Reason for the suspension action, Dr. Sullivan said, was that the pupils affected had "given the impression that they had established the image" of being under influence of a drug.

About More Rumors

We asked Dr. Sullivan to comment on other rumors. About the report that a student "passed out" in class. The pupil fell asleep, not passed out, he said. (The single intended function of Dorodin is to induce sleep—ed. note.)

No, the student bore no "marks" on his arms which would be indicative of him being administered or administering himself a drug by means of a hypodermic needle.

Attempted suicides? The so-called "clorox" story was an extra-scholastic rumor, therefore out of the perview of the school's authority.

Law enforcement agencies admit they're "stumped" on this one.

About the girl allegedly seen with a hypodermic needle and syringe inside a school lavatory? There was no evidence that this took place, said Dr. Sullivan. If there were any witnesses, they have failed to make an appearance, it was reported.

Dr. Sullivan emphasized that reports of "drug" or "dope" activity in the school are not new. He said that the school had set up a procedure for collecting information which might have a bearing on that particular situation. He cited the "cooperative meeting" arranged some time ago with law enforcement agencies to work mutually with school authorities and the subsequent success of that cooperation.

He said that when the current case "blossomed out" earlier this year, law enforcement agencies were made aware of the situation and members of the State Police Bureau of Investigation were called in to assist. "The cooperation has been excellent," he said.

Dr. Sullivan said that he was aware of "rumors" that "dope" was being used or distributed in OCS, and that as a citizen of Woodstock he also was aware of rumors of "dope" or narcotics operations in that community.

Philip Gordon, of Phoenicia, president of the Onteora Board of Education, echoed Dr. Sullivan's comments in regard to the school investigation. He said, "Whatever rumors come to our attention, we attempt to have the proper authorities conduct an investigation in an effort to track them down.

"We have not been able to pinpoint any evidence," he said, "of the use or distribution of narcotics."

A 'Cosmopolitan' Community

Supervisor Molyneaux said that Woodstock was the "most cosmopolitan" community in the county and was the most direct upstate link for commuters from New York City than any other major municipality. He said there was direct bus service between New York and Woodstock which made weekend commuting easy, and added to a large visitor element which was "pretty hard to keep an eye on." However, he said, "Our constables do a good job, and work closely with state police BCI."

Meanwhile, law enforcement agencies, which pay particular attention to thefts where narcotics are involved, continued their investigation into just such a recent theft.

Earlier this year, burglars made off with some $2,000 worth of loot including some 3,000 narcotics tablets, from Langer's Pharmacy on Route 375 in the Town of Hurley.

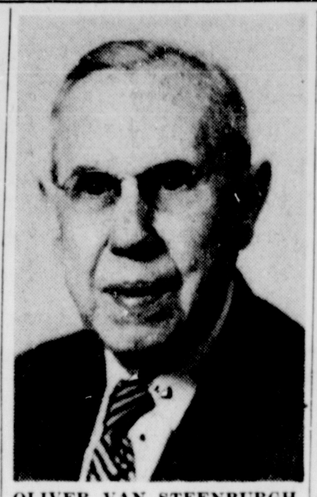

Whether the narcotics left the area or were transported elsewhere is not an established fact.

However, County Investigator Thomas Mayone told The Freeman that there were "a few leads" in the case, "but nothing concrete."

As other rumors persisted, and attention was drawn to more factual information, law enforcement agencies called on the public to notify them if they had any knowledge or reliable information of any suspected "dope" operation or any other crime. They assured the public that their identity would be protected as far as the law provides.

As one seasoned officer said, "We don't want to indict the entire community of Woodstock over a few, fruitless rumors; but a community is only as good as its citizens want it to be."

To which another observed, "We'd like to get the information (about suspected criminal action) before it becomes a fact —not a few days or weeks later."

OLIVER VAN STEENBURGH

Van Steenburgh, Retired Freeman Printer, Succumbs

A veteran local printer who retired from The Freeman 10 years ago this month died today at his home. He was Oliver Van Steenburgh of 25 Furnace Street.

Born in Kingston Nov. 10, 1874 he was the son of the late Abram and Sarah Van Steenburgh.

After attending public schools in this city he entered the printing industry in 1890 at the Kingston Weekly Argus where he became familiar with every phase of his craft.

Official With Argus

After the death of owner Henry G. Crouch, his son Judge Leonard C. Crouch formed a corporation for the publication of a paper. Mr. Van Steenburgh played a vital role in the new concern when he was elected vice president while his brother Walter Van Steenburgh was named secretary-treasurer. They supervised the printing of the weekly until it was sold three years later.

In 1908 he joined the Kingston Daily Freeman job department where he was employed until the plant was moved to its present location in 1911.

Employment with C. M. Thomas Sons followed and for a time he conducted his own job shop, Franklin Print Shop on Franklin Street.

Retired After 20 Years

He rejoined The Freeman in 1934 as a compositor where he served for 20 years until his retirement.

His wife, the former Clara Kelsch died in July 1962. Among the survivors is a step-son, Fred Harder, secretary of the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association.

Funeral arrangements will be announced by the Henry J. Bruck Funeral Home, 27 Smith Avenue.

KHS Distributive Education Group Attends Meeting

Student members of the Distributive Education Clubs of America from Kingston High School attended their state convention at the Schine Ten Eyck Hotel in Albany March 12, 13 and 14.

Members attending the convention were Jon Herring, president of the local chapter; Beverly Bunten, vice president; Lawrence Clearwater, treasurer; Mary Quarantino, secretary, and Frances Marello, parliamentarian. Also, David Lowe and Ursula Woock, contestants in two of the merchandising contests, and Patricia Harvey and Barbara Jackson, representatives for their local chapter as voting delegates and as members of the courtesy corps greeting conventioners, attending.

The DECA club program was initiated to create a better understanding of merchandising problems and to develop a greater interest in the merchandising field by the students. To develop proficiency in this field, many contests were arranged for the students to enter. Approximately 700 students and advisors from all over the state attended the convention and took part in its activities. David Lowe of Kingston entered the Advertising Layout Contest and placed fourth in the state. Ursula Woock, a competitor in the Window Display Judging Contest placed in the top twelve, and Frances Marello, Kingston's entrant in the DECA Sweetheart Contest, was selected as a member of the Sweetheart Court. Jon Herring, Lawrence Clearwater and Beverly Bunten, officers, participated in leadership sessions concerning the democratic leading of meetings and electing of officers.

While at the convention, the students elected the New York State officers of the DECA clubs, who along with contests winners, will represent New York State at the national convention to be held in the Spring.

Accompanying the students to the convention were Loryne Connick and William Plimley, coordinators of the Retailing Program at Kingston High School.

Says Demands Costly

Area Goldwater Supporter Speaks For Hurley GOP

Tuesday night Kent Leavitt of Millbrook, a candidate for delegate to the Republican National Convention from the 28th Congressional District, spoke to members of the Town of Hurley Republican Club and explained why an effort was being made in this area to send delegates to San Francisco who will back Barry Goldwater for the Republican nomination.

Also attending last night's meeting at the West Hurley Fire Hall was the second candidate for delegate, Lewis I. Hall of West Hurley, who announced that a Citizens for Goldwater Headquarters will be opened on Saturday morning, March 21 at 11 a. m. at 672 Broadway, Kingston. Hall said that the headquarters will be open every day to provide the residents of the area with information about Sen. Goldwater and that designating petitions for the Goldwater delegates will be available.

At the meeting Tuesday night, besides the Hurley members, there were also representatives from Republican clubs in the Towns of Woodstock, Rosendale and Shokan as well as individuals from other areas including a delegation from Kingston.

In his address Leavitt outlined his reasons for backing Goldwater and explained that Goldwater is the only candidate who really exemplifies true Republicanism and is the only Republican who can win this year's election.

The Goldwater backer explained how the drive to get the delegates favorable to Goldwater on this June's primary ballot will be conducted in the area and urged every Republican who wishes to see the Arizona Senator as the Republican nominee to sign the designating petitions when they are circulated in this area. Leavitt pointed out that the fight for delegates is strictly a national issue and has not been designed to combat or embarrass any local individuals such as Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson, who is seeking the nomination as a delegate pledged to Gov. Rockefeller.

Dear Abby . . .

It's a Tie!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I and another couple went to a dinner show at a night club. Our income requires that we budget carefully. My husband and I ordered the least expensive dinners, and one drink apiece. The other couple ordered the most expensive dinners and they each had four drinks. When the waiter brought the check, the other man just divided it half and said, "Your share is $19.90." The floor show was on at the time, so my husband said nothing and paid up. On the way home he told the other man that he had some money coming, and explained why. The other man became indignant and said, "If you can't afford an evening out, you should stay home." Of course he was wrong, but how could this have been avoided?

FRIENDSHIP RUINED

DEAR RUINED: When you ordered, your husband should have asked the waiter to make up separate checks.

DEAR ABBY: Do gentlemen really prefer blondes? Do blondes have more fun? Why do men act so silly over girls with hair that is bleached until it looks like straw? Wouldn't they rather see a natural redhead, or a girl with shining black hair, or chestnut-colored hair with golden highlights? Why do men rave over a girl just because she has blonde hair? I would like to know the answer to this, and so would a lot of other women.

NO DYE HARD

DEAR NO: Men like hair that is (a) clean, (b) well-groomed, (c) fragrant, (d) shiny, and (e) soft. If it is all of these things, men don't care whether it's black, brown or gray. I know a girl who has been both blonde and brunette, and she didn't have any more fun as a blonde.

• • • •

DEAR ABBY: Last week I was a witness in court. As I approached the witness stand this 65- or 70-year-old judge shouted at me, "'Say, if you're gonna testify in this court, speak loud and with respect!" Then he fell back in his chair, put his feet up on his desk about six inches from my face, and lay back like he was dead. While I was talking, he suddenly jerked his feet off his desk, sat erect in his chair and shouted at the top of his voice, "SPEAK LOUDER!" Do you think I should send this judge a bed and a hearing aid?

DEAR WITNESS: "Judge not, that ye be not judged." Matthew 7:1.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Is the business upturn from the 1960 recession catching its second wind or is the economy starting an entirely new cycle of its own?

Most observers have looked on last summer's dip and the mild recovery of industrial production from October through December as just one of those hesitations that come in most recoveries from recessions.

They date the present upturn as starting in February and March of 1961, and now pretty old as recoveries go.

Point For Minority

But new pep in the economy in recent weeeks has given a talking point for the minority holding that last summer and fall could be classed as a new-style recession—the mildest on record, perhaps, but a real one. And thus the current jump in industrial production is the start of a new general upswing.

This point of view is held by those championing the new philosophy that old business cycles are outmoded. If so, this would mean that recessions in the future will be no more than what we've previously regarded as hesitations.

It's a heart-warming theory, although far from proved, and far from generally accepted.

What is certain is that the Federal Reserve Board reports its industrial production index made its largest advance in February since last October. Based on the 1957-59 average as 100, the index in February hit a record 127.6, up from January's 127.2, and compared with a year ago figure of 120.2. The index climbed in the first part of 1963 and then dipped by one point in August and September. In all, the seven months prior to February were dubbed sluggish by the old school economists, and a slight recession by the new school.

Should Continue

The February advance is credited largely to the demand for automobiles and other consumer goods. It was accompanied by a rise in retail sales and brisk construction activity.

This consumer demand is working back to manufacturers in the form of new orders. So the gains in industrial output are expected to continue through the spring — whether this be a renewed spurt of an old upturn or the start of a new cycle.

Also counted upon to help are tax reduction, corporate profit increases, and the heady scent of rising stock prices.

Whatever today's general business upturn is dubbed, it is expected by almost all the experts to last through most of this year. Some are doubtful about next year, but the hardy band championing the new economic theory think 1965 will see further improvement.

Addresses Irish Dinner

America Land of Hope, Dignity, LBJ Declares

NEW YORK (AP) — A self-styled "Irishman by osmosis," President Johnson told a St. Patrick's Day dinner "I have found our nation's greatest strength lies in the dream of America — America, the land of hope; America, the land of opportunity.

"All the slings and arrows of our opponents in the world have never succeeded in destroying that image," he said Tuesday night.

With jest and with serious talk, Johnson spoke to more than 2,500 members of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick in a Waldorf-Astoria Hotel ballroom festooned with green streamers hanging from crystal chandeleirs. The headtable was scarcely visible behind green carnations.

Explaining why he is Irish by osmosis, the President spoke of the Irishmen in high government places — associates in the White House, the speaker of the House, and the Senate Democratic leader.

"I woke up this morning," he said with a smile, "and suddenly realized that the Irish have taken over the government. And I like it."

He said the dinner was supposed to be a nonpartisan affair, but remarked that the Democratic party is "so peaceful the Irish may move to the Republican party where the feuding is really going on."

Then, turning serious, the President said St. Patrick's Day is one in which America shares in a very definite sense because the Irish who came here had a dream of freedom and dignity.

"Here a man could hold his head as high as any other," he said, "and worship his God as he chose, without ever accounting to a soldier with a bayonet."

To an audience that interrupted frequently with applause, Johnson said nothing is more important to him than making this a land whose compassion will be an example to the world's other 119 nations.

He said he wants the United States to be a land where the sick of body can find help and the sick of heart can find hope.

Albert S. Miller Jr., 27, of RD 1, Box 311-C, Rosendale, charged with speeding, pleaded guilty and was fined $20 in city court today. Peter Perry, 18, of 17 Flatbush Avenue, charged with driving without proper license, was fined $10. Attorney Charles J. Saccoman, appeared for the latter.

C-H Lauds City, Area Residents For Storm Help

The entire Central Hudson organization is grateful to the residents of the City of Kingston and northern Ulster County for their cooperation and assistance during the emergency conditions brought about by last week's ice storm.

Lelan F. Sillin Jr., of Central Hudson, made the following statement:

"Central Hudson employes, who were acutely aware of the seriousness of the situation and worked long hours to restore electric service, deeply appreciated the courtesies extended to them by the public. The patience and understanding displayed by our customers during very difficult conditions was particularly significant in enabling our line forces to restore service as quickly as possible under emergency conditions.

"We also are grateful for the excellent work performed by local, county and state agencies in clearing debris from roads and in controlling traffic, thus enabling our line crews to reach the scene of major service interruptions in the city and immediate region.

"Again I would like to commend Kingston area residents for their individual and collective support. Their cooperation reflects great credit on them because, although they were inconvenienced during the emergency, they realized the enormity of our problems and assisted us with patience and understanding."

The Indian official said his government considers these skirmishes potentially dangerous but does not think an escalation into a greater conflict is threatened.

On the Chinese frontier, he said, there is no indication the Communists will try anything big in the near future. Red troops, however, are consolidating positions they won in the 1962 border war.

India regards the China-Pakistan collaboration as so close that it believes the Communists are virtually certain to push a road from Chinese territory deep into Pakistan, perhaps to the capital of Rawalpindi, the official said. Such a road has been rumored in Pakistan.

"The Chinese are now 'in' in Pakistan, and the two will be moving together from now on," he said.

Strike Hits France

PARIS (AP) — France's public services were hard hit by a 24-hour strike today.

Estimates of the number on strike ranged from several hundred thousand to 6 million. The Communist-led General Workers Confederation took the leading role in the walkout for higher wages, but many Catholic and Socialist workers joined in.

Constables Will Get Briefing at Katrine Tonight

Assistant District Attorney Joseph Torrace will be the main speaker tonight at a meeting to be held at Lake Katrine Grange Hall, Town of Ulster, where the town constables will be briefed on some of the laws and facts surrounding their office.

Also on the program is Arthur H. Brown, special investigator for the District Attorney's office, and Ulster County Investigator Thomas Mayone.

The constables will assemble at 7:30 p. m. and the program will begin at 8 p. m. Town of Ulster Councilman Sal Castiglione will moderate the meeting and at the conclusion of the talks there will be a round-table discussion and a question and answer period. Arrangements for the meeting were made by Councilman Ted Musialkiewicz, chairman of the constable committee, but due to recent surgery, he will be unable to preside at the session.

During the session the constables will be briefed on the duties of their office, the law and types of crimes and also on provisions of the Traffic Code, so that they may be better acquainted with their duties and more familiar with the law and thus be of better service to the town.

Second Burglary Count Charged Against Zehnic

A 17-year-old Kingston youth, who previously was charged with participating in a city diner burglary, was arrested Tuesday by Senior BCI Investigator Frank Stainkamp and Investigator Richard Ryan on another burglary charge.

Troopers said Thomas Zehnic, of 34 Chapel Street, waived preliminary examination before Justice of the Peace Arthur A. Reilly, Town of Ulster, and was remanded to the county jail to await grand jury action.

Zehnic, authorities said, allegedly was involved with seven other youths previously taken into custody in connection with area burglaries.

On Tuesday, Zehnic and Wayne Rydzewski, 18, of Box 71, Star Route, Rosendale, were arraigned in city court on charges of burglary third degree, and both waived preliminary hearing. The case was referred to the grand jury.

Zehnic and Rydzewski are accused of a Feb., 7 burglary at the Empire Diner, 476 Broadway, according to Lt. Lemuel Howard, who investigated the break with Detectives Charles McCullough and Albert Hutton and Officer Floyd Krom, who were assisted by County Investigator Thomas Mayone of the sheriff's department.

Young GOP Has Meeting Tonight

A meeting of the Ulster County Young Republican Club is scheduled tonight at 8 o'clock in the hall of Kingston Lodge 550, Elks, at 264 Fair Street.

This was announced today by a member of the executive board of the club who said that there will be discussion of policy prior to the Board of Governors meeting at Utica, March 20 and 21, of the Association of New York State Young Republican Clubs, Inc.

All members of local club are urged to attend tonight's meeting.

Financial and Commercial

NEW YORK (AP) — Strength in steels, motors and airlines helped nudge stock market averages further into new high ground early this afternoon. Trading was moderately active.

Gains of key stocks went from fractions to a point or so.

The steels were meeting new investment demand in the wake of reports this week of the new boom in the steel industry. Autos also had an optimistic industry background.

Airlines continued to ride higher on a prediction of an unexpected profit for the industry in the first quarter.

Rails inched higher on balance following their moderate recovery of Tuesday on news that the threatened rail strike had faded for the time being.

Cigarettes were lower. A sharp drop in cigarette sales was reported in February.

Gains of fractions to a point or so were made by several of the office equipment and photographic stocks.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .1 at 302.3 with industrials unchanged, rails up .3 and utilities off .1.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 2.44 to 820.60.

Prices were mixed in moderate trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate bonds were mixed. U.S. government bonds were slightly lower.

Claims Company Reneged on Job, Seeks $130,000

CLEVELAND (AP)— Bernard Calverly, a native of England, has sued Thompson Ramo Wooldridge, Inc., of Cleveland for $130,000 in U.S. District Court here, claiming the company reneged on an offer of a job for life.

Calverly, a tool-and-die maker who lives in Sardinia, N.Y., contended in the suit filed Tuesday that damages are due him because of the expenses involved in settling his family in this country. He also cited the loss of free medical and dental care he would have received in Britain.

His petition stated his former employer conducted an employment campaign in England in 1957 and made "blandishments, representations and assurances that those who accepted its offer of employment would be assured of permanent employment for life."

A company spokesman said Calverly was in error in stating that he was promised a lifetime job, adding: "The concept of a lifetime job is completely ridiculous."

The Callanan Road Improvement Company, South Bethlehem, was signally honored at the annual convention of the National Crushed Stone Association held recently in Chicago for its outstanding record in the 37th Safety Contest conducted annually by the United States Bureau of Mines.

Plant No. 1, South Bethlehem, winning Group II, completed the competitive year 1962 with a total of 176,802 man-hours without a disabling work injury, ranking third in the nation amongst the 225 mines and quarries which participated. Plant No. 3, Kingston, ranked second in Group II and fourth in the nation with a total of 159,226 man-hours without a disabling work injury.

This is the seventh time which the South Bethlehem quarry has received this trophy which was accepted at Chicago in behalf of the company by Charles Barba, Selkirk, selected by the employes to represent them. The Kingston quarry, winner for the third time, was represented by William J. Parmelee, 88 Hoffman Street, also selected by the employes.

Loss Is $59,000 From Collapse of Chicken House

Damage resulting from the recent collapse of a six-story chicken house owned by Thomas Gellert, North Hillsdale, Columbia County, chicken farmer, on Tuesday was placed by the owner at $59,000.

Two poultry workers, John McDarby of West Ghent, and John Vachula of Claverack, who were trapped in the building after the collapse, were reported in satisfactory condition last night at Columbia Memorial Hospital, Hudson.

Gellert said it would cost in the neighborhood of $50,000 to replace the building and automatic equipment, and an additional cost of $5,000 to cover the loss of about 6,700 chickens.

It was reported by authorities that the boys allegedly placed lengths of pipe and other material on the New York Central Railroad tracks last Friday. A freight train appeared later and the locomotive passed over the material without incident, but the caboose narrowly missed derailment, it was said.

Army Officer Picks Three Growth Stocks

Q) "I am an Army officer with twenty year retirement in 5 years at age 42. My job potential in electronics engineering is several times my present Army salary. We hold a few good stocks now, have generous savings and insurance coverage. We are considering buying Sears, Roebuck; Bristol-Myers; and Caterpillar Tractor. Will these fit into the growth program we desire?"—F. G.

A) I believe you have picked three excellent stocks for increasing your capital in the years ahead.

Sears, Roebuck and Bristol-Myers are very strong growth issues that I have mentioned before.

Caterpillar Tractor — which is engaged largely in road-building machinery — is not technically considered in the growth category. Partly because of its large foreign operations, the cylclical factor has been pretty well smoothed out. Earnings and dividends have been in a generally upward trend over the past decade, and the stock has been one of the best performers of 1963-4. I think it can be included with the other two for your purpose.

Q) "Realizing the importance of diversification, what do you do when you have a high percentage of your capital in a stock that you have owned for 40 years and whose tax base is practically zero? I'm in that position, and if I sold to secure diversification, I would have to pay a stiff capital gains tax. I would appreciate your views."—H. S.

A) If I were in your position, I would diversify and pay the resultant tax. Diversification, to my mind, is one of the most important of investment rules, and I believe it is unwise to disregard it.

All stocks contain an element of risk. In my long investment experience, I have seen men hurt badly because they have held a disproportionate amount of capital in a single stock — and have seen that stock fall because of a new element of competition, government regulation, or simply fashion.

Mr. Spear cannot answer all mail personally but will answer all questions possible in his column.

Captain Cleared Of All Charges On Rape, Assault

FT. DIX, N.J. (AP) — Capt. Eugene Goldman, an Army doctor accused by three women patients of rape and indecent assault, has been declared innocent on all counts by a general court-martial.

Goldman, 30, father of two, smiled and his eyes filled with tears when his acquittal was declared Tuesday night by Col. David R. Crocker, president of the nine-officer board.

The women had filed complaints charging that Goldman raped them in his examining room at Walson Army Hospital after giving them drugs that made them sleepy. Goldman, during the four hours he was on the stand, emphatically denied the allegations.

Richard A. Godfrey, Newark district sales manager, said 300-500 Club membership awards are presented for excellent retail sales performance. The Ford 300-500 Club was founded in 1950 to recognize the performance of outstanding Ford salesmen throughout the country.

Cruthers Report Stirs Action on Building in OCS

Following a lengthy building progress report on new elementary construction by Trustee Raymond C. Cruthers, the Onteora Board of Education adopted two resolutions designed to insure completion of all new installations by the September target date.

The board unanimously adopted a motion by Trustee David Carlson that the board act promptly and unanimously in transmitting orders and directions to the architects and contractors. He urged a strong letter of protest to the architects complaining of the lack of progress at the West Hurley installation.

On a motion by Trustee John W. Ebbs that the board hire an extra clerk of the works to supervise the Phoenicia building site, Trustee Arthur J. Knight of West Hurley dissented. He took the firm position that the board should go through the present channels to see that the building schedule is kept up to date before the question of additional help is considered.

Supporting the Ebbs motion were Trustee Philip Gordon, board president; and Trustees Lloyd K. Collins, Anne Larys, Raymond Cruthers, David Carlson, Herbert Shultis and Herbert Epstein.

Highly Critical

Cruthers, chairman of the board's building committee, was highly critical about the lack of progress at the West Hurley site. Admitting obvious poor weather conditions, he said he felt the masonry work was not advancing as fast as it should and suggested that additional help might be employed. He said all the needed materials are on the site. A change in the elevation of the sewage field, he added will save work and expense on rock elimination, a big factor in the West Hurley location. Cruthers warned that constant supervision would be needed to insure that the West Hurley addition be ready by September.

Cruthers was extremely pleased with progress at Phoenicia where, he said, there is a possibility the building will be ready ahead of schedule. He expressed similar satisfaction with progress at the Woodstock site. He noted that the contractors will move into the old building during the Easter vacation period for certain preliminary work.

It was during his discussion of the shortcomings at West Hurley that Cruthers expressed doubt that the one clerk of the works now employed could adequately supervise all three installations simultaneously. He noted that provision was made in the budget for extra clerk help and urged action on the matter.

Superintendent Sullivan recalled that originally provision was made for a clerk and a half and suggested the time might be at hand to hire additional help to expedite the works. Ebbs' resolution on hiring extra help was contingent on the architect's approval.

Parents Protest Pupil Transfers To New School

A group of parents in the Wittenberg-Mt. Tremper-Cold Brook Road area of Woodstock township has protested the proposed transfer of elementary pupils from the Reginald R. Bennett School in Boiceville to the new school in Phoenicia.

The Onteora Board of Education at its Monday night meeting took the matter under advisement, after acknowledging receipt of a petition and hearing spokesman for the group.

The group, led by Roger Cashdollar of Wittenberg, advanced several reasons why they rejected to the proposed re-location of elementary pupils for the 1964-65 school year.

Specifically, Cashdollar said, the group desired that their children remain in the Bennett school because of the natural geographic affinity and objections to the extra mileage the children would have to be transported to Phoenicia. Other spokesmen objected to depriving the pupils of the present high standard teachers and administration at the Bennett school. The question of splitting families because of the double bus run on the Wittenberg-Mt. Tremper-Cold Brook Road was also raised.

Point to Brochure

The group also noted that in the brochure for the elementary school construction bond issue last year one section specifically suggested that the building of the Phoenicia school would alleviate the crowded conditions at the Bennett school.

"We want our children to come here (Bennett) rather than help fill another school," Cashdollar said.

He said that the persons present had voted in good faith to alleviate conditions at the Bennett school and it was the unanimous feeling of the parents that they wanted their children to remain in the Bennett school.

Raps Road Conditions

One of the mothers objected to the several switches in schedule that children on Cold Brook Road had been subjected to in the past. Velma Grazier urged the board to seriously reconsider the proposed new allocation of pupils. Another mother blasted the condition of Cold Brook Road asserting that it was unfit for and dangerous for big bus travel.

In concluding his remarks, Cashdollar said he felt that the board and the petitioners were not too far apart. He felt that a solution could be worked out.

Trustee Ann Larys assured the group that their children would receive equal educational opportunities at Phoenicia where the teachers, curriculum and quality of education would be on the same level as that of the Bennett school.

Watson I. Goodrich, director of transportation for the district said the most direct route from the area to the Phoenicia school would add only 1.4 miles each way for the approximately 30 children involved.

Superintendent of Schools Sullivan said that when new schools are located realignment of boundaries was necessary somewhere. He dissented from the group's strict interpretation of Article 6 in last year's brochure which stated the new Phoenicia school would alleviate Bennett conditions. The petitioners held firm on their interpretation of the item.

Superintendent Sullivan then raised the rhetorical question: "Is the Bennett school, the school for all children in Olive?"

Board president Gordon concluded the discussion with the statement that the board would take the matter under advisement with the school administrators and a final decision would be made based on the most efficient administration for the entire district.

Democratic Club Panel to Discuss Drug Addiction

A record attendance is expected for the Woodstock Democratic Club's panel discussion on "Drug Addiction" Thursday at 8 p. m. at the Town House in Woodstock.

A distinguished panel has been assembled to discuss the touchy and currently red-hot subject. The group includes two area physicians: Dr. Theodore S. Drachmann, Ulster County Commissioner of Health; Dr. Norman Burg, Woodstock's busiest general practitioner; and Lt. Lemuel Howard, chief of detectives of the Kingston police department.

The doctors will discuss the medical side of the question and Howard will deal with the problem from the point of view of law enforcement agencies. In addition a film entitled "Narcotics —The Decisioned", a 16 mm. sound and color film produced by the United States Treasury Department will be shown.

Franklin P. Gavin, prominent Woodstock attorney who has first hand courtroom knowledge of the subject, will be the moderator.

Club president Peter W. Rakov invites the public to attend.

The Democratic Club discussion is particularly timely in view of today's revelation of drug addiction in the Woodstock area.

Progress Reported on Cracking Assembly Revolt on School Aid

By ROBERT T. GRAY

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Progress was reported today in efforts to crack an Assembly revolt against the leadership's school-aid plan and clear the way for adjournment of the 1964 legislative session within the next week.

Assembly Speaker Joseph F. Carlino was back at the long, arduous task of wooing balking members of the GOP Assembly majority after the collapse of a compromise plan that had been expected to win them over with ease.

Winning Support

The word among informed sources was that Carlino had reported cautiously he was making some headway and winning support.

This was the situation:

— There was unanimous agreement among Republicans that state aid should be increased across the board by 3 per cent, a total of $25 million a year.

—The Senate was on record in favor of the increase as part of a package plan calling for local districts to take over an additional 5 per cent of teachers' contributions to the state retirement system, increasing their take-home pay by that amount.

—The Assembly GOP majority has opposed the 5 per cent increase.

Other Developments

These were other developments in state government:

Racing—The New York Racing Association appeared assured that a tax concession giving it $6 million a year in extra building funds would be continued but the non-profit organization, subject of Democratic complaints over its fiscal practices, faced closer scrutiny in the future by the Legislature and comptroller's office. Legislation to carry out those objectives was introduced yesterday.

Budget — Senate Majority Leader Walter J. Mahoney said he hoped that Rockefeller's budget, a record $2.92 billion, could be passed on Friday.

Adjournment—Mahoney stood by his prediction of adjournment by next Wednesday but Carlino remained uncertain because of the school-aid impasse.

The Assembly majority also has been against restoring to the budget cuts it had made in Gov. Rockefellers proposals The items were $1 million additional to help New York City administer its rent-control program, $630,000 for 100 additional state troopers and $500,000 for more campsites throughout the state.

Reckefeller's Stand

Rockefeller said he would not agree to any plan that does not provide for the increase in take-home pay and restoration of the budget cuts.

The Assembly has twice rejected proposals embodying both those points.

Carlino has sought to reverse their positions.

One of the factors in his argument involved the districts' contribution of 17 per cent of total payroll to the State Teachers Retirement system.

The leaders have been exploring ways to have this reduced. The savings would offset the higher cost to districts of the additional 5 per cent on individual salaries, they say.

There was hope for a settlement to the school-aid deadlock Tuesday when the leaders adopted a plan based on the assumption that the trustees of the retirement system would cut the districts' contribution beginning this July.

But that plan was abandoned in late afternoon when it was learned this could not be done, that any cut could take effect in July 1965 at the earliest.

The governor explained in a statement that the misunderstanding arose when a representative of the teachers retirement system said the reduction could be made effective July 1, 1964.

That information was communicated to legislative leaders at a meeting in the governor's office.

Carlino complained he had been given "misinformation" but said he did not hold the governor responsible.

Not Changing Views: Barry

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Here are today's political developments, in brief:

Goldwater — Continuing his campaign for California's June 2 Republican presidential primary, Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater said he would not change his conservative views to get votes. In a speech at the Chico Fair Grounds Tuesday night, Goldwater said President Johnson is "so indebted to the left-wing element I don't see how he can get away from it." The senator headed today for Lakeport, Auburn and Stockton.

Wallace — Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace told his supporters in Wisconsin they should expect to be "smeared" by the "liberals and the left-wing press." The segregationist governor opened his campaign in the state's April 7 Democratic presidential primary Tuesday in Appleton where he said the late Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, a Republican, had accurately forecast communism's threat to the United States.

Kennedy — Atty. Gen. Robert R. Kennedy said in Scranton, Pa., he was undecided whether to accept the Democratic vice presidential nomination if asked to run by President Johnson. "I haven't made up my mind what I'm going to do," he said. Kennedy received a rousing welcome in Scranton, where he addressed a St. Patrick's Day dinner and made several public appearances.

Assembly Passes Wilson Bill on Minors Hunting

A bill of Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson (R), to amend the Conservation Law in relation to hunting by minors passed the New York State Assembly yesterday.

Assemblyman Wilson stated that this bill would amend section 238 of the Conservation Law by repealing that portion which specifies that a junior hunter may not take a bag limit of legal game which exceeds the bag limit of his accompanying parent, guardian or designated person. The Wilson bill would permit every licensed hunter irrespective of age classification to reduce to his possession under Conservation Law or order the daily bag limit specified in such Conservation law or order.

Assemblyman Wilson explained that the excess ration of both senior and junior hunters is not so great that it causes any depredation in game population today. These bag limits are rigidly controlled by the Conservation Department to prevent this from happening to our game population.

Senator E. Ogden Bush has a companion bill in the Senate.

The New York State Conservation Council had approved the bill and recommended its passage.

Ruby Continues Impassive As Hours Slip by in Jail

DALLAS (AP)—At 11:30 a.m. Saturday, when jury foreman Max E. Causey neatly printed the letters "DEATH" with a ball point pen on the blank provided, Jack Ruby sat impassively in his jail cell.

Neither Ruby nor anyone else outside the jury deliberation room knew whether the 52-year-old former strip joint operator had been found legally guilty or innocent of the slaying of President John F. Kennedy's accused assassin, Lee Harvey Oswald.

Less than an hour later, Ruby and the world heard Judge Joe B. Brown speak the words "and assess the penalty at death." Courtroom observers noted that the defendant remained outwardly impassive.

Jack L. Ruby continues to appear impassive as the hours, and the days, slip by him in jail.

He plays dominoes and cards by himself. He eats when food is served and shaves with a double-edged razor and takes a shower when so directed.

Only Jack Ruby knows the Ruby thoughts.

"Hi, Phil, how are you today," Ruby greets defense lawyer Phil Burleson. The lawyer visits almost daily.

Burleson said Ruby has asked for nothing special since the verdict and has not requested to see anyone but his lawyers and relatives.

"I've talked with him about the appeal and tried to make him understand that it will take time," the Dallas attorney commented. "Jack seems to feel confident that he will get a fair review."

Burleson said Ruby is in good health. His mental framework "is as good as can be expected under the circumstances."

Chief jailer E. L. Holman said Ruby seems calmer now than when he was being taken to and from the courtroom twice daily during the trial.

"He's doing all right," Holman says. "He doesn't give us any trouble. He never has."

Ruby has three adjoining cells to himself. A walking area 12x25 feet fronts on the cell tier. It is here that Ruby plays his lone games of dominoes and cards on a bare table.

Ures Rail Priority Over Wheat for Reds

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Frank Horton, R-N.Y., said today U.S. wheat shipments to the Soviet Union have created a shortage of freight cars for domestic rail shipments.

He urged action by Congress and the Interstate Commerce Commission to give the rail shipments priority over any wheat being sent to the Soviet Union.

In a prepared House speech, Horton, an opponent of the wheat sale, said domestic shippers and their customers face economic havoc because of the diversion of railroad cars to wheat.

He said a fertilizer manufacturer in his district faces the prospect of reduced rail deliveries of raw materials because of the movement of wheat to East Coast ports for overseas shipment.

As early as the 8th century B. C., decorated eggs were used to symbolize spring.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Mrs. Jerrie Mock, 38-year-old Columbus housewife and mother, has delayed until Thursday her takeoff on a planned around-the-world solo flight.

Mrs. Mock seeks to establish a women's record. She hopes to fly around the world in 90 days or less.

She will pilot a single-engine Cessna which did not arrive in Columbus until early today from Wichita, Kan.

Her first stop will be in Bermuda. From there her scheduled stops include the Azores, Casablanca, Tunis, Cairo, Bahrein Island, Karachi, Bombay, Madras, Singapore, Manila, Guam, Wake, Honolulu, San Francisco, and back to Columbus.

Mrs. Mock majored in aeronautical entineering at Ohio State University. She has logged more than 750 flying hours and held a pilot's license for seven years. She has been planning the trip for a year.

Acquitted in Shotgun Slaying of Druggist

NEW YORK (AP) — A State Supreme Court jury today found John Rosello Jr., 22-year-old messenger, innocent on a charge of first-degree murder in the shotgun slaying of a Bronx druggist last March 20.

The verdict of the all-male jury was announced at 2:20 a.m., about 11 hours after it began deliberation.

Rosello, of Manhattan, was accused of slaying William Epstein, 60-year-old pharmacist, in a telephone booth in his store.

Rosello denied he had anything to do with the killing. He said he spent the afternoon with a Rodriguez family and four members of the family backed him on the witness stand.

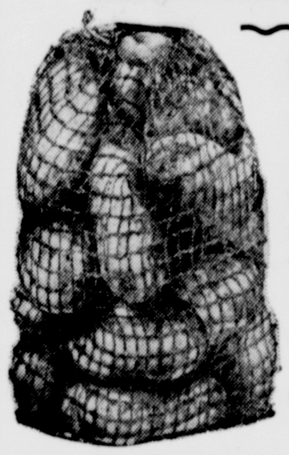

The trial, before Justice Charles A. Marks, lasted three weeks.

Dems Meet on Platform

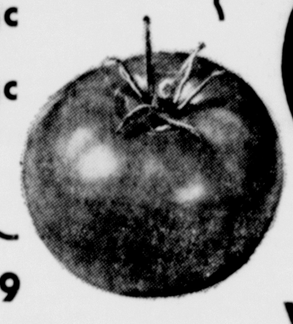

NEW YORK (AP)—The platform and resolutions committee of the State Democratic Committee will meet Saturday and Sunday in Cazenovia to develop national platform recommendations for submission to the party's national committee.

State Democratic Chairman William H. McKeon said Tuesday night that topics to be considered at the Madison County session will include medicare, social security, narcotics, cigarette research, voting qualifications, automation, minimum wages and government economy.

Measures Acted Upon

Bill Calls for Price List Before Funeral Takes Place

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Funeral directors would have to provide a written, itemized statement of arrangements and price before a funeral took place, under terms of a bill now before the Senate.

The measure, introduced at the behest of Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz, won approval in the Assembly Tuesday. It was sent to the Senate, where it was expected to be passed.

The bill was among scores acted on by the two houses Tuesday as the pace of legislative activity picked up and leaders pointed toward adjournment next week.

A number of major bills, however, continued to be held up by disagreement on the final form of Gov. Rockefeller's proposed budget. No bills that require appropriations may be passed until the budget is adopted.

Calls For Prices

The bill on the price of funerals would require funeral directors to furnish, at the time funeral arragments are made, a written statement containing the price of the funeral and an "itemized list of the services and merchandise...and a statement of cash advances and expenditures to be advanced."

In urging enactment of the bill, Lefkowitz said it was aimed at protecting the public charged by some unscrupulous undertakers. The bill was a result of widespread public interest in the undertaking business after publication of a book on alleged abuses.

Bill on Aid

The Senate passed and sent to the governor a bill to increase the maximum income a person or couple could receive and still be eligible for medical assistance for the aged. The maximum was raised from $1,800 to $1,500 for a single person and from $2,600 to $2,750 for a married couple.

Firemen and policemen would receive eight paid holidays a year, instead of the present six, under the terms of a bill approved in the Assembly and sent to the Senate. The measure would add Columbus Day, Oct. 12, and eliminate a provision for a choice between Lincoln's Birthday, Feb. 12, and Washington's Birthday, Feb. 22. Both would be holidays if the bill is enacted.

Other action on legislation:

Regents Fellowships — The Senate approved a bill to permit persons who receive Regents teaching fellowships to use them for graduate study in any approved college in the country. Use of the fellowships now is restricted to New York State.

Custodians' Pay — Assemblyman William F. Passanante, D-Manhattan, recommitted the bill he sponsored to place controls on salaries of custodians in New York City public schools. Some custodians have been paid more than $40,000 a year. Passanante moved to recommit when the bill appeared about to be defeated in a vote.

Auto Junkyards — A measure to empower municipalities to regulate auto junkyards was recommitted and killed by its sponsor, Assemblyman Russell Selkirk, R-Schoharie.

Sunday Sports — Gov. Rockefeller signed a bill to permit baseball and football games and other entertainment to begin at 1:05 p.m. on Sundays, instead of 2 p.m. The World's Fair, which opens next month, also comes under its provisions.

Toy Pistols — Youngsters under 16 years old no longer would be classed as juvenile delinquents if they possess toy pistols, under the terms of a bill given final legislative approval in the Assembly and sent to the governor.

Racing — Legislation was introduced to continue a $6 million-a-year tax concession for the New York Racing Association, operator of thoroughbred race tracks at Aqueduct, Belmont and Saratoga. But the bill also would require audits of the association's affairs by the state comptroller and would provide other restrictions on the association's activities.

Narcotics — The Assembly turned down a bill that would have allowed pharmacists to sell narcotics on the basis of a telephoned or oral order, provided they kept a record of such orders. The prescribing physician would have been required to submit a written prescription within 72 hours.

Seat Belts — The governor signed a bill to establish minimum standards for construction and installation of the shoulder-harness type of auto seat belts.

New Additions

battle for additional school aid still is raging in Albany.

The board acknowledged a letter of commendation from John Wallace, Pine Hill, who praised bus driver Howard Sebald for his skillful handling of the recent school bus accident. Also placed on file was a letter from Dr. Frederick Elias of Woodstock complimenting the English department on the recent students' performance of the Bald Soprano in Woodstock.

A budget meeting was set for Wednesday, March 25.

Paul T. Runge, principal of the high school, was named assistant clerk for the Olive election district for the bond issue meeting. George Smith, business manager of the district, was named permanent chairman of the bond issue special meeting.

Name Chairmen For Red Cross

District chairmen for the 1964 Red Cross campaign now in progress in the township of Woodstock have been announced by Mrs. Ben L. Webster, township chairman.

An Erie County Court jury returned the verdict Tuesday night. County Judge Burke I. Burke had instructed the jury it could find Willie Brown innocent, or convict him of first-degree manslaughter, second-degree manslaughter or second-degree assault.

Had One-Day Trial, Denies Guilt

Western Governor Refuses To Extradite Negro to Ga.

By BILL MERTENA

WARDEN, Wash. (AP)—For the first time in more than five years, Charles Will Cauthen is a free man today.

Washington Gov. Albert D. Rosellini Monday refused to extradite the 26-year-old Negro to Georgia where he is under death sentence for the murder of a white service station operator, Elijah M. Perkins, at Griffin, Ga.

Cauthen escaped from jail at Zebulon, Ga., on March 26, 1959, three days before he was to be executed and made his way to

CHARLES WILL CAUTHEN

Warden, a small farming community in eastern Washington. He took an assumed name and worked for three years as a farm laborer, gaining the respect of his employer and others in Warden.

Aided by Citizens

Last summer he was arrested by the Federal Bureau of Investigation on a fugitive warrant. He has been fighting extradition ever since, aided by petitions and money from Warden citizens.

"We've kept his quarters waiting," said Clyde DeGraff, a part - time Warden cattleman and school teacher, for whom Cauthen worked.

Cauthen, still known in Warden by his assumed name of Bob Williams, returned here Monday night to take up his life where it was left off last summer.

Says He'll Remember

"I have to live up to this. I have to live a life worthwhile—worthy of all the people who supported me," Cauthen said.

DeGraff said those who supported Cauthen in his fight against extradition hoped to hold a giant celebration. But they were holding off for a while.

"We're trying to consider what Bob's feelings are going to be. Everyone's real eager to do something, but they don't want it to be something that will make him feel uncomfortable in any way," DeGraff said.

He's Under Parole

In announcing that he had refused to honor the extradition request of Georgia Gov. Carl Sanders, Rosellini said, "It is my feeling that the best ends of justice are met by denying the application for his extradition and by allowing him to remain in this state." The governor, however, placed Cauthen under supervision of the State Parole Board.

The young Negro claimed throughout that he was innocent of the Georgia killing. A battery of attorneys volunteered legal aid. They claimed Cauthen's constitutional rights were violated in his one-day trial in his home state.

Pretty Cuban Refugee Flees as Man on Ship

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A pretty refugee said today she fled Cuba by stowing away on a cargo ship dressed as a man.

The petite brunette, Nelida Del Pilar Fernandez, 21, said she was aboard the Lebanese vessel Toula, carrying Greek crewmen, when it left Havana last November.

In British Honduras, she was discovered, the stowaway said, but was permitted to continue after the ship's captain paid a fine for her. She said she left the ship in Jamaica and was there three months.

She was one of 41 refugees arriving in Miami Tuesday.

Lose Tons of Weight

ATLANTA (AP) — Members of the Georgia State Patrol have lost more than two tons in nine months in an effort to get down to normal weight.

The target: another ton and a half by September.

Col. Lowell Conner, boss of the 418 troopers, ordered the loss in weight.

NEW TROOP GETS FLAG—New Junior Girl Scout Troop 159 sponsored by the Union Center Civic Group receives American Flag from representatives of the Wiltwyck Chapter, Daughters of American Revolution at birthday party and court of awards marking the end of Girl Scout Week. At the presentation ceremonies are Mrs. Cloyd Elias, regent; Roxanne Holt and Margaret Sheffield, patrol leaders; Mrs. Arthur Hazenbush Sr., chairman of the DAR flag committee and Mrs. William Daum, troop leader.

Union Center Scouts Have Awards Court

The climax of National Girl Scout Week was for Troop 159 of Union Center a combination birthday celebration and Court of Awards on Friday afternoon when Wiltwyck Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution presented a new flag of the United States of America to the recently organized troop.

Mrs. Cloyd Elias, Regent of the Wiltwyck DAR chapter, and Mrs. Arthur Hazenbush Sr., chairman of the flag committee, made the presentation to Patrol Leaders Roxanne Holt and Margaret Sheffield in an impressive dedication ceremony. Mrs. Walter Tremper also represented the DAR as a guest of the troop.

Troop Leader Mrs. William Daum, assisted by Mrs. James McElhaney, conducted the Court of Awards for girls who had earned badges during the past few months.

Two new Scouts, Charlotte Nunes and Diane Koola, were formally welcomed into the troop in a candlelight ceremony with several girls participating in a explanation of the path of Scouting the purpose of the badges, and the Juliette Low World Friendship Fun.

In a surprise appearance, a Norwegian Girl Scout, impersonated by Helen Johnson, invited the audience to attend the Kingston District Girl Scout birthday celebration the following day at the municipali auditorium.

Mrs. Sue Abramsky, neighborhood advisor, was also present at the meeting to answer questions about Camp Wendy, the Ulster County Girl Scout Camp located near Wallkill.

The troop's own birthday party was hosted by Mrs. Frederick Harris in honor of daughter Deborah's 11th birthday. Mothers of the Hummingbird Patrol assisted.

Junior Girl Scout Troop 159 meets each Friday afternoon after school at the former Union Center Schoolhouse in Ulster Park and is sponsored by the Union Center Civic Group.

South Korea Desires Antisubmarine Help

WASHINGTON (AP) — South Korea's top naval officer said Tuesday he has asked the United States to provide more antisubmarine warfare equipment to meet a growing submarine threat.

The visiting Korean chief of naval operations, Vice Adm. Lee Maeng-tkee, 39, told a news conference the best present estimates are that: (1) North Korea has more than two Soviet-built medium submarines; (2) Communist China has 32 or more and (3) the Soviet Union has more than 100 submersibles based at Vladivostok and Dairen.

Whipping Bill Beaten

LANSING, Mich. (AP)—A bill calling for juvenile lawbreakers to be punished by public whippings was killed Tuesday by the House Judiciary Committee.

"I guess you could say we beat it to death," quipped Rep. Thomas Whinery, R-Grand Rapids, chairman of the committee.

Relentless Account of Atrocities

Full Auschwitz Story Coming 20 Years After Nazi Barbarity

An AP Special Report
By LOYAL GOULD

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) —Slowly but fatefully, justice is writing its meager footnote to the incredible story of Auschwitz—nearly 20 years after it became a symbol of Nazi barbarity.

New aspects of the Nazi concentration camp in Poland, where four million to five million persons perished, are being revealed bit by bit to the German people and the world.

Even Revolts Judge

The scene is Germany's largest war crimes trial, against 22 Germans who were SS guards or functionaries at Auschwitz during World War II.

Since it began last December the trial has boiled down to a relentless account of atrocities. Judge Hans Hofmeyer often pales with revulsion.

The defendants listen impassively, now and then scribbling notes for their attorneys. Confronted face to face with a witness who recognizes them after so many years, they indignantly insist the witness has confused them with someone else.

Their defense rests mainly on one point — "What I did in Auschwitz, I did on higher orders."

German historians testify that SS guards could do practically anything they wished with prisoners since Hitler's concentration camp system was built to rid the world of what Nazi ideology considered inferior people—Jews, Slavs, gypsies and others regarded as unfit to contribute to Nazi Germany's glory.

The German press has given the trial extended coverage, at times highlighting gruesome details that otherwise don't find their way into the pages of family newspapers.

Reasons for Delay

Why did it take almost 20 years to get the Auschwitz trial rolling?

The force behind the trial, Fritz Bauer, chief prosecutor in the state of Hesse, is himself a veteran of Nazi concentration camps.

He says part of the difficulty in preparing the case stemmed from the early postwar period when the Allied victors held war crimes trials and then shipped Nazi archives to Washington, London or Moscow.

Since this country is organized on a federal basis, coordinated work was difficult. Persons lacking enthusiasm for further exposes of the Nazi era found it possible to hamper investigation and pass the buck from state to state.

Many West German police officials are old colleagues or friends of persons suspected of crimes against humanity.

The trial, expected to run about a year, took four years for Bauer to prepare. During this time, 1,300 people were heard in pretrial investigations. About 300 witnesses from 15 countries are expected to testify.

Rickenbacker Is Urging Support of Goldwater Drive

NEW YORK (AP) — Eddie Rickenbacker, World War I flying ace and former board chairman of Eastern Air Lines, announced Tuesday night he has mailed to "tens of thousands" of New York State residents an appeal to contribute money to the campaign of Sen. Barry Goldwater for the Republican presidential nomination.

Rickenbacker's statement was issued through the Goldwater for President office here. The Arizona senator's chief rival for the nomination is Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York.

Mrs. Leonard Van Dyke, wife of Sixth Ward Alderman Van Dyke, of 18 Mill Street, announced Monday that a local unit of the Congress of Racial Equality will be organized Monday, March 23 at her home.

All persons interested in joining, she said, are requested to be at her home at 8 p. m., on the night of the meeting. A field worker from New York will come here to give his assistance, she said, after the unit is organized.

Only Two of 12 Papers Exist Since Year 1904

NEW YORK (AP) — They opened the box which had been sealed in the cornerstone of the old Times Tower in Times Square Tuesday, and read all 12 New York newspapers dated Jan. 18, 1904.

The papers reported trouble in the Far East and Panama. Commuters on the Erie Railroad complained of congestion.

Broadway box-office practices were under fire. Brooklyn police were chasing the Mafia.

There were bloody uprisings in Africa, and editorials told of the dangers of cigarettes.

The box was opened because the Times Tower is being reconstructed as the Allied Chemical Corp. Tower.

Of the 12 newspapers only two are still published under the same names — the Times and the Morning Telegraph.

The Morning Telegraph is now a racing paper.

De Gaulle Keeps Irritating U. S.

French Premier Scores With Latin America: Ambassadors

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Score one for French President Charles de Gaulle. Big Charley, in his uniform and military cap, did all right without laying a glove on President Johnson.

In his first jostle with Johnson the Frenchman came through smelling like a rose, even though they were miles apart in their encounter, while the American President put the Latin Americans in a tizzy.

The two men had a short talk here last November after President John F. Kennedy's funeral. It wasn't a formal talk. That was supposed to come this year. But then there was some confusion about it.

Were they supposed to meet here, or where? Johnson wanted it here. De Gaulle wanted it on an island in the Caribbean. So there was no meeting.

But then the Frenchman irritated the American government by recognizing Red China and on top of it decided to visit Mexico as part of his plan for getting good will and probably business for France in Latin America.

Didn't Click

Johnson arranged to make a major speech to Latin-American ambassadors at the Organization of American States on the very day, Monday, that De Gaulle landed in Mexico, uniform and all.

If it went right, Johnson would get as much front-page play in Latin America as De Gaulle since his talk was on how the United States and its southern neighbors could pull together better. But it didn't go all right.

Shocked at Speech

While De Gaulle did all the nice things in Mexico, Johnson didn't do them here, or at least the ambassadors didn't think so. One reporter, who knows the ambassadors, said they were shocked and astonished at Johnson's speech.

This is how it happened. For weeks a special OAS committee had been trying to get Panama and the United States to settle their dispute over the Panama Canal Zone.

After the riots at the zone last January, Panama severed diplomatic relations with this country. Panama demanded a revision of the 1903 treaty which says the United States can control the zone and the canal indefinitely.

The night before the Johnson speech the OAS announced the two sides had agreed to sit down and discuss to negotiate their differences.

Tell Another Story

Latin-American diplomats said before the OAS committee released its announcement it had sought and got the approval of Thomas Mann, assistant secretary of state for inter-American affairs.

U.S. officials now tell another story: that there had been no agreement, that Mann hadn't approved the announcement, that he had said he would need time to consider it, and that he consulted Johnson.

Looks Like Surrender

At any rate—this was Sunday night—a few hours after the announcement Republican senators denounced it. They didn't think the administration should agree to "negotiate" on the treaty. They said it looked like surrender.

A few hours after the Republicans said what they had on their minds, a so-called "high U.S. source" made a joke of the OAS announcement by saying there had been no agreement.

Not Very Good

The next day, Monday, Johnson went to the OAS to make his speech. He had it all prepared in writing. It turned out not to be a very good speech. It was hardly more than a collection of friendly and pious statements.

Even so, if this had been all, while it might have disappointed the ambassadors it wouldn't have been enough to astonish them. Johnson proceeded to astonish them by injecting something that wasn't in the prepared speech.

He made official what the "high source" had said the night before. He said there had been no meeting of the minds with Panama.

Thus, in a talk which was supposed to be all about cooperation he (1) injected the sore subject of Panama and (2) in effect, told the OAS to its face that its special committee's announcement was all wet.

Lawrence Hopes Show Will Get Him to Hollywood

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—In show business they're never happy all the way until they prove themselves on Broadway.

That's the way Steve Lawrence felt. He had made it big as a television, recording and night club star.

He is starring now in a musical about a young Hollywood heel who throws away love and friendship — and just about every other decent human virtue—to keep from being "a loser."

Public Likes It

It is a show that didn't stand the drama critics on their ears, but the public is going for it.

The big reason is the bouncy zest that Steve brings to the title role. In every ambitious human heart, there is a bit of willingness to sacrifice others to win our goals, and Steve brings the point home in a memorable way.

Lawrence, who could be making a lot more money singing to supper audience, is having a ball on Broadway.

"It's a very rewarding feeling," he remarked over a luncheon of a bloody mary and a pot of tea. "It has a separate kind of glow.

"But I think it would be harder for a performer to go from Broadway to the night clubs than vice versa. The night club field is a lot rougher one."

He is hopeful the musical will be a stepping-stone to the films.

Helps Longevity

"The more fields you can perform in the more you increase your chances of longevity. You don't want to outwear your welcome with the public, and you're less likely to do this if you are active in more than a single medium."

Lawrence, the son of a Brooklyn cantor, sang in choirs as a child, quit school in his senior year because a best-selling record put him in the $150-a-week bracket as a club singer. Earlier he had worked as a singing bus boy at summer resorts.

During a two-year stint in the Army he subsequently studied his way to a high school diploma.

Life is a three-ring circus to Lawrence. Married to singer Eydie Gorme—they have two children—he writes songs and runs a recording company in his spare time. His hobby is watching horror and science fiction films with his wife.

"To me life is largely a compromise," Lawrence said, "and it's lived pretty much on the 50-yard line of a football field. You never quite make a touchdown.

Most Pick Compromise

"Everybody has to compromise between what he'd like to have and what he actually gets. But you have to pick your own level of compromise.

"Most people defeat themselves. They either go about a situation wrongly, or they give up too soon.

"But I believe anybody who puts honest dedication, intelligence, and perseverance into his work will wind up with something better than a kick in the face. He'll have some measure of success."

Tavern Owners Hear Griffin on State Law Items

Members of the Ulster County Hotel, Restaurant and Liquor Dealers Association, at a recent meeting in the Governor Clinton Hotel, were advised to be on their toes and contact legislators on measures, which affect their business.

Guest speaker was Jack Griffin of Greene County, a member of the state legislature committee.

He advised that they write their senators and assemblymen to favor a bill that would change the definition of a restaurant and remove the necessity of certain taverns to serve hot meals and employ chefs.

A measure that should be protested, he said, is one that would permit sale of half pints of blended whiskey in package stores, because this size would be sought by teenagers.

Griffin emphasized that a bill has been introduced to provide that any person, who misrepresents the age of another, for the purpose of purchasing or attempting to purchase him an alcoholic beverage, will be subject to a $100 fine and six months in jail.

Says Soviet Union Ahead in Atom Data

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, told newsmen Tuesday that the United States probably would gain more than the Soviet Union in an exchange of atomic energy information.

He said the Soviet Union has an advantage over the United States because more American research results are published and the Russians have a highly efficient system of screening foreign technical journals.

Hollywood News, Views

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — John Ford, who has made more movie classics than any other director, made one of his rare public appearances this week and received the homage that is due to him.

He showed up at UCLA for a program in the extension division's series of tributes to American directors. He turned out to be warm, human and lovable, in contrast to his reputation as an irascible bear.

Sigh of Relief

His arrival caused university and Directors Guild officials to sigh with relief. Ford seldom showed up to collect his own Oscars—"The Informer," 1935; "Grapes of Wrath," 1940; "How Green Was My Valley," 1941; "The Quiet Man," 1952.

Ford seemed delighted with all the attention, watched with interest clips from films like "The Informer"—not one of his favorites—"They Were Expendable" and "My Darling Clementine."

Only at his introduction did he seem his peppery self. When described as having been everything in the film industry including actor, he shouted, "I deny it."

Later, however, he wouldn't go along with Alfred Hitchcock's jest that "actors are cattle."

Said Ford: "I would never say that actors are cattle a good many of them are real pros. I have never run into any temperament in 45 years of directing."

If members of the Ford stock company had been present they might have added they wouldn't dare show temper around the old man.

Confirms Legend

Ford was asked what message his films carry. He turned to director George Sidney and asked "What was it Sam Goldwyn said about messages?"

Sidney supplied the answer: "Let Western Union carry them."

He confirmed a legend which demonstrates his disregard for scripts and for the meddling of executives. He said that the son of a very rich man came down to his set one day and complained that the picture was four days behind schedule. Ford tore out a handful of script pages and gave them to the young man.

"Here," he said. "Now I'm three days ahead."

Head for Home

POSTOJNA, Yugoslavia (AP) —A group of German ornithologists caught several bats in the Skocjan Caves near there last summer. They took them to Munish, put identification bands on their legs and turned them loose. The bats flew 400 miles back to the caves.

Druggist Couldn't Fill

An hour later he handed the prescription to pharmacist J. D. Koontz who glanced at the paper and smiled.

The prescription recommended that Smith "Take one trip to Florida. Vacation at leisure."

Smith carried out his doctor's orders the next day.

Association Formed

An Isle of Man Manx Cat Association has been formed. The government of the isle in the Irish Sea has established an experimental farm to keep the tailless cats going.

Two Sentenced to Life

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—Two of three young men accused of killing a Malden policeman have been sentenced to life imprisonment.

Louis Ladetto, 17, of Cambridge, and Lawrence Guerra, 25 of Watertown, changed their pleas of innocent of first degree murder.

The third defendant, Peter Ladetto, 25, brother of Louis, remained on trial in a Middlesex Count Superior Court.

Two Negroes Hired

FLORENCE, Ala. (AP)—The City Commission has dropped racial barriers on the city Police force.

The commission announced Tuesday it has hired two Negroes who recently passed Civil Service examinations. They are Harrison Eugene Humes, 25, and Oscar Southard Jr., 32.

This northwest Alabama city of 32,000 has experienced no racial demonstrations.

Paducah Readies For High Flood Waters of Ohio

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Paducah, vast major city along the overflowing Ohio River, prepared for a crest nearly nine feet above flood stage today but counted on its wall to prevent major damage.

Floods which began a week ago along the river, a 981-mile-long transportation link in the country's midland, caused $100 million or more in damages, took 15 lives and affected 110,000 persons.

Smithland, at the junction of the Cumberland and Ohio rivers 20 miles above Paducah, had a touchy battle against the flood. Officials hoped the levees would hold, but a few homes were evacuated.

President Johnson Tuesday authorized $250,000 to Kentucky and Indiana, the first step in federal aid, to restore public facilities. Kentucky asked $4.2 million; Indiana more than $2 million. Other states hard hit include Pennsylvania, Ohio, West Virginia, Missouri and Illinois.

Bull Smashes Truck, Owner Must Pay $300

ATLANTA (AP) — The bull won but his owner lost.

The Georgia Court of Appeals upheld Tuesday a $300 damage award by a Hall County jury to Jewell Hulsey.

Hulsey was driving along U.S. 129 north of Gainesville, Ga., when he came upon a bull in the road.

The bull walked straight toward his truck, Hulsey said, while he tried unsuccessfully to brake to a halt. After the collision, the bull got up and was led back to a pasture. The truck was virtually demolished.

Hulsey sued the bull's owner, G.W. Law, for damages, charging negligence in not maintaining adequate fences.

Courteous and Dependable Service

To the one man in 15 who will need a Water Heater this year...

There are many ways of heating water. The question is, which one will do the best job — which water heating service will, over the years, give you the most for your money?

•Hot-Water Output -- Some water heaters will give you plenty of hot water in a short period of time — much more than you can use; in fact, more than five families can use — but in doing this job the heat output is so great that the life of the water heater is shortened, which means early replacement. Now there IS a water heater which gives you all the hot water you need WHEN you need it — an electric water heater.

•Safety -- What can be safer than a tank with the heating unit right in the water itself? An Electric Water Heater is the only type that's built this way.

•Dependability -- Is your present means of heating water giving you occasional trouble? There are certain types of water heaters that are more prone to trouble than others. With an electric water heater there are no motors, blowers, nozzles, fire walls, mixers, etc., just clean electric heat bathed right in the water itself. What's there to go wrong with an electric water heater?

•Convenience -- All other types of heaters have to be connected to some kind of flue. Sometimes this is convenient. More often it isn't. Anywhere you can run a wire you can put an electric water heater. Closet, bathroom, kitchen (under counter, if you'd like).

•Equipment Life -- Motors burn out, bearings give up, moving parts in general break down, intense local heat corrodes, destroys, and creates chemical deposits. You don't have any of these problems with an electric water heater.

•Economy -- For the actual fuel cost to heat a gallon of water, electricity costs less than some methods and a bit more than others. Why hide it? But for overall service we think that electricity offers enough other advantages — some you can measure in dollars and cents, such as no repairs, no cleaning, no replacement and lowest original cost, to equalize the long-range cost of water heating. Of course, there are other electric advantages too, such as convenience of installation, dependable service and your family's safety, which are hard to measure.

Give it some thought. We think you'll come to the same conclusion 20,000 other Mid-Hudson families have . . . for safe, dependable economical Water Heating, Electricity gives you the most for your money.

Call us for complete information on buying (or renting) an electric water heater, or send in this coupon.

Glancing Over TV Bill of Fare

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — If a stranger from abroad suddenly found himself in front of a television set in the United States, he could get a weird impression of this country and its inhabitants.

He could be forgiven if he decided the only really fine men of the nation were lawyers, doctors, school teachers, social workers, public and private eyes and peripatetic ranchers.

He might deduce that crime lords operate everywhere through connivance with corrupt politicians; that rich old men always live in enormous houses of Spanish mission-English Tudor architecture, have bars in every room, unfaithful young wives and are deeply involved in shady deals.

He could conclude logically that every corporation has a mousy accountant on the verge of absconding with company funds; that moderately successful young businessmen live in the suburbs and are putty in the hands of antiseptic, Machiavellian blonde wives.

His impression of our average citizens, if he studied television commercials, might send him scurrying home in despair.

Our men are usually depicted having ecstatic moments shaving, applying hair oil or lighting a cigarette upon completion of a parachute jump or a deep-sea dive.

Our women are shown spending most of their time fretting over cleanliness—of their laundry, their dishes, their floors, their plumbing and their faces—if they aren't in anguish from nagging headaches or in tears because their gray hairs keeps husbands from taking them dancing.

It isn't really that way, friends, just in television land.

There is an unfortunate conflict tonight between the two most promising programs of the week. They are NBC's "Little Moon of Alban," a dramatic special and "CBS Reports" live debate between Democratic Sens. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota and Strom Thurmond of South Carolina on the civil rights bill. Both programs will be broadcast at 7:30 p.m., EST and both are recommended.

Kingston Newspaper Guild Ball June 6; Page One Queen, Awards, Dinner, Dance

The ninth annual Page One Ball conducted by the Kingston Newspaper Guild will be held at the Wiltwyck Country Club on Saturday, June 6 instead of May 23 as previously announced, according to Mrs. Dorothy A. Narel, KNG president and Edward Palladino, general chairman.

The change in the date was decided by the committee so as not to interfere with Ulster County Day at the 1964 New York World's Fair, which opens April 22.

Tickets for the ball are now available and may be obtained from any member of the Guild.

Proceeds of the annual event given by the KNG enables the local unit to support the YMCA summer program whereby five needy area children spend two weeks each in the Ashokan Camp, and to give the annual Harold L. Van Deusen memorial scholarship award, which is presented to a deserving journalism student graduating from Kingston High School.

Chamber Music Concert at USMA

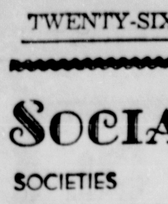

WEST POINT, N. Y.—The Sixth Chamber Music Concert will be presented by members of the USMA Band on Sunday, March 22, in the Pershing Room of Cullum Hall at 3:30 p. m.

This concert wil also introduce two compositions written by members of the Band. The first of these will be Specialist Raymond Turner's "Quintet for Brass." This will be followed by Specialist James D'Angelo's composition entitled "An Essay for Brass." Also to be featured will be Beethoven's "Duet for Viola and Cello," and the late Paul Hindemith's "Sonata, Klavier Vierhandig."

The public is cordially invited to attend.

GREETING-CARD RULE

Q: Not long ago you wrote that it was unnecessary t acknowledge greeting cards. May I protest? People who have grown lax about thanking me for my cards have been stricken from my list. I think when friends are thoughtful enough to remember birthdays, anniversaries, etc., the least the receivers of these remembrances can do is to say "thank you."

A: It is of course, always courteous and polite to acknowledge a greeting card if one one would like to and has the necessary time, but most people haven't There would be few cards exchanged if busy people felt acknowledgements were exacted. There is, in fact, very special delight in receiving a greeting card because it is the one gift which requires no thank you. We send cards in return as occasions arise and we do try to remember to thank someone we see for his or her card.

Mr. or Dr.?

Q: My fiance will receive his medical degree one week before we are to be married. The wedding invitations, however, will be sent out three weeks before at which time he will still be "Mr." Would it be permissible, to have the invitations read Dr. John Brown, or must they be Mr. John Brown?

A: If your fiance is absolutely certain that he will receive his degree, it would be permissible to use the title "Dr." on the invitations.

Announcing Birth of Second Child

Q: I am expecting my second child soon and wonder what should be done in the way of announcing its arrival? The first time we sent printed birth announcements.

A: It is curious that so many people have the idea that no announcement is made except for a first child. This is in no way true. It is just as correct to announce the birth of a second child (or however many one may be blessed with) by sending birth announcements.

SPRING HOPES ETERNAL

Chisox Rookie Hoping to Start At Second Base

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP) — The Chicago White Sox' fabulous luck in striking big league gold with raw rookies seemed holding firm today in the person of second baseman Don Buford.

Buford, the International League's most valuable player at Indianapolis last season, is making the most of his chance to replace Nellie Fox, traded to the Houston Colts.

Buford's fielding has been faultless in the Pale Hose' first three exhibition games. He leads the club in hitting with 385 with five hits in 13 trips.

A third baseman last year at Indianpolis, Buford has worked hard in camp on the pivoting and off-balance throwing to first base required of a good second baseman.

Sox shortstop Ron Hansen said of Buford:

"I think he has looked very good making the pivot. He takes my throw real well. He keeps asking questions about hitters and he is quick to accept advice where to play each hitter."

As a 27-year-old rookie, Buford is in the same position to match such other White Sox "finds" as Chico Carrasquel, Luis Aparicio, Fox and last year's great first-year tendem of third baseman Pete Ward and pitcher Gary Peters.

Carrasquel stepped in overnight to replace Luke Appling. When Carrasquel faded, Aparicio moved in as a shortstop.

Fox, a kid recruit obtained from the Philadelphia A's, suddenly became the backbone of the Sox.

Last season Peters won American League Rookie of the Year honors with a 19-8 record. Ward, "sleeper" in a big trade last year with the Baltimore Orioles, was runner-up to Peters for league rookie of 1963 laurels as he batted .295.

Army Surprises Dukes, 67-65, In NIT Tourney

NEW YORK (AP) — Move back, you NYU Violets, Happy Hairston and Barry Kramer. The Army Cadets, with Mike Silliman, Joe Kosciusko and Bob Siegle, have become the sentimental basketball favorites in the National Invitation Tournament.

Given even a slimmer chance than NYU in pre-tourney forecasts, the Black Knights of the Hudson surprised St. Bonaventure 64-62 in the first round last Saturday and Tuesday night came through with another tremendous upset. They humbled third-seeded Duquesne from Pittsburgh 67-65 in an overtime quarter-final struggle.

Now they are in the feature second game spot of Thursday night's semifinals against second-seeded Bradley from Peoria, Ill.

NYU, considered a "bust" during the regular season, but which ousted Syracuse in the first round and knocked off top-seeded DePaul on Saturday, goes against the fourth-seeded New Mexico Lobos in Thursday's opening game.

The Lobos from Albuquerque gained their semi spot by surviving Drake's furious closing finish to beat the Bulldogs from Des Moines 65-60 on four free throws by Dick Ellis in the last 27 seconds.

Koufax Breezes Past Mets, Adds New Pitch to Collection

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

For the opposition, the discouraging thing about Sandy Koufax isn't his awesome fastball or his sharp-breaking curve or the combination of the two, which renders hitters virtually helpless. It's the thought of him adding another pitch.

Koufax made his Grapefruit League debut Tuesday and had New York Met hitters lunging and lurching at an assortment of pitches which included a new weapon — something Koufax needs about as much as J. Paul Getty needs another million.

The addition was a blooper pitch, something like the one Rip Sewell flashed at National League hitters in the 1940s. Sandy displayed it three times, getting it over twice for strikes in his five inning stint.

"I'm serious about the pitch," said Koufax. "As long as I can throw it for a strike, I'll use it."

The old Koufax arsenal was more than enough against the Mets, who managed just two hits. In their short history of futility, the Mets have been at their lovable worst against Koufax with a total production of exactly one run in 43 innings of exhibition and regular season action against the Dodger ace since May 1962.

Fans Seven

Once rid of Koufax, who fanned seven, the Mets broke loose against old teammate Bob Miller with Frank Thomas' two-run homer the major blow. Los Angeles weathered the storm for a 5-3 victory.

Unbeaten St. Louis handed Cincinnati its first setback 4-2. Starter Harry Fanok doubled home the first two Cardinal runs and hurled three shutout innings to pick up the victory. Vada Pinson homered for the Reds.

Bob Buhl, Cal Koonce and rookie Sterling Slaughter limited the Los Angeles Angels to three hits for a 2-0 Chicago Cub victory. Lou Brock tagged loser Ken McBride for a solo homer.

The Minnesota Twins feasted on New York Yankee frontline pitching for a 7-2 victory, New York's third setback in four starts. Vic Power had four singles and Jimmie Hall a solo home run for the Twins as Al Downing, Ralph Terry and Whitey Ford hurled for the Yanks.

Felipe Alou slammed a homer and a two-run triple as the Milwaukee Braves unleashed a 13-hit attack for an 8-1 victory over the Kansas City A's.

Rookie Rico Carty also homered for the Braves, who had managed just three runs in two shutout victories before facing the depleted Athletic staff.

Giants Top Bosox

The San Francisco Giants bunched four singles for three runs in the sixth inning and then held on for a 4-3 victory over the Boston Red Sox. Willie McCovey's three hits led the Giants' attack.

Norm Cash and Willie Horton slugged home runs as the Detroit Tigers dumped Philadelphia's Phillies 8-2. Cash drove in five runs as Detroit evened its Citrus record at 2-2.

Skinny Brown, Larry Yellin and Larry Bohannon allowed just three Baltimore hits as the Houston Colts nipped the Orioles 3-2 in 11 innings. Bohannon's one-out single delivered the winning run for the Colts.

Ted Savage smashed a two-run homer and the Pittsburgh Pirates came up with a run in the bottom of the 10th inning to edge Washington 5-4.

Yankee Killer Frank Lary Set for One More Big Try

LAKELAND, FLA., (AP) — Frank Lary, the old Yankee killer, is ready to give it one more big try. Because of shoulder trouble the Detroit right-hander has won only six games in the last two years.

But how can you give up on a man who won 23 games in 1961 and owns a lifetime edge of 28-13 over the New York Yankees

"He looks looser than he did last fall," said Manager Chuck Dressen at the Tigers' training camp. "Frank throws a knuckler, slider and curve all with the same speed. I am trying to get him to work on a slow curve. From what I can see so far there is nothing wrong with him."

Lary, who will be 33 before opening day, is working slowly, trying to strengthen the arm that has won 123 games for the Tigers since 1955 In his first exhibition outing against Minnesota, he allowed only one scatch hit in three innings and fanned two.

All Right

"The arm seems all right," said Lary. "It feels pretty good. If the weather is good down here I want to get in as many games as I can before we break camp.

"Sure, I wish I could forget the last two years and go back to 1961. But a lot of guys have run into the same problem that I have.

"This is something I have to work out for myself. Nobody knows how my arm feels except me. I felt pretty good last spring, too, but my arm didn't get strong until late in the season."

Flood Is Modest But Statistics Are Eloquent

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) —Curt Flood, at 26 the ranking member of the St. Louis outfield, sat on a tractor behind the Cardinals' batting cage, minimizing his achievements and the problems involved in working with new running mates.

"What I did last season was what I had to do," he said. "You have to get 200 hits to break even on this club."

No matter how Flood minimizes the achievement, he still was only one of five National Leaguers to reach the 200-hit level last season. He also hit .302 and drove in 63 runs — a remarkable figure for a leadoff batter.

"I can't really say whether 1962 or 1963 was my best season," said Flood, "but I would say last year was my best as far as fitting in was concerned. But then everything has to be measured by how we finished—and unfortunately we were a day late and a dollar short."

In Majors Six Years

Flood's major league career is six years old. He has established himself as a graceful, wide-ranging center fielder, and with Stan Musial retired, is the lone fixture in the Cardinal outfield. His outfield partners likely will come from among Charlie James, Carl Warwick, Doug Clemens or Mike Shannon.

"There's not going to be any problem with any of them meshing with Flood," said Manager Johnny Keane. "He covers a lot of ground. And there's not going to be any extra pressure on Curt because he's playing with these guys. If there's any pressure it might be on the young player playing alongside him."

Flood came to St. Louis in 1957 from Cincinnati in a trade for pitchers Willard Schmidt, Marty Kutyna and Ted Wieand. Always an exceptional fielder, he began to produce at the plate in 1961 when he hit .322, then followed that with .296 in 1962 and last year with his first 200-hit season.

HawksTopDetroit, Keep Hopes Alive

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The St. Louis Hawks will get one more shot at a piece of the National Basketball Association's Western Division crown.

The Hawks trimmed Detroit 115-99 Tuesday night, cutting San Francisco's Western lead to a game and retaining a mathematical chance to tie the Warriors for the title.

If St. Louis beats Detroit in its season wind-up tonight and Philadelphia upends San Francisco, the Hawks and Warriors will play off for the No. 1 spot.

The war is over for New York's weary Knickerbockers, who closed out another nightmarish season by losing to Boston 127-121. Los Angeles finished its regular season business on a happier note, trimming Philadelphia 121-97 on the West Coast.

St. Louis Coach Harry Gallatin rested his regulars after they'd gunned to a 25-point third quarter lead over Detroit, then had to rush in the starters when the Pistons closed the gap to six late in the game. A couple of hook shots by Cliff Hagan, top St. Louis scorer with 24 points, put an end to the Pistons' bid.

The Celtics, trailing 78-74 midway through the third period, cut loose with 11 straight points and pulled away from the Knicks. Bill Russell and Sam Jones led the breakthrough and finished with 24 and 26 points, respectively.

Los Angeles buried Philadelphia with a 41-point third quarter after being held to a 48-48 intermission tie. Jerry West's 31 points were high for the Lakers. Paul Neuman had 22 for the 76ers.

UCLA Set ToImprove 28-0 Mark

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

KANSAS CITY (AP) — UCLA won't be bothered by the pressure of an unbeaten season in the final rounds of the NCAA basketball championship.

"We feel we're starting a new season," Bruin Coach John Wooden said.

"Our kids were pressing to complete the regular season undefeated. They made it. And that took the pressure off. Now we feel we're starting all over again.

"If we get beat, it won't be because of that kind of pressure. It'll just be because we played a better team."

The top-ranked Bruins take a 28-0 record into Friday night's semifinal match with Kansas State, the Big Eight champ with a 22-5 mark. Michigan, 22-4, plays Duke, 25-4, in the other semifinal.

UCLA beat Kansas State and Michigan romped over Duke in regular season play, but all four coaches, speaking over a four-way telephone hookup Tuesday, agreed those December results could be discounted.

"It was obvious when we played Kansas State that they were experimenting, looking for the right combinatio. Apparently they found it. They've come a long way since then," Wooden said.

Strack Is Wary

Michigan's Dave Strack, whose Wolverines bombed Duke 83-67, said his team isn't taking the Blue Devils lightly.

"We're not looking past them," Strack said. "No sir. We're not looking past anyone. We're just looking forward to Friday night. We're going in with respect for everyone and fear of no one."

Duke's Vic Bubas said his team had matured since the loss to Michigan.

"We think more aggressively, play more aggressively now," he said. "We are a more confident team now. Our scoring balance is better and we're a little better off defensively."

Tex Winter of Kansas State said his team is now "as good as any team that's going to be there.

"UCLA is very difficult to play against. When they beat us, we just weren't real well prepared to handle the kind of problems UCLA presents. We're a little better prepared now."

The teams took their final workouts on home courts today. All are scheduled to arrive in Kansas City Thursday and will have brief workouts at the Kansas City Municipal Auditorium, site of the Friday night semifinals and Saturday finals.

None has ever won the championship.

Yankee J. H. Winner In Roosevelt Race

WESTBURY, N.Y. (AP) — Yankee J. H. scored a nose victory over Speedy Boy in the $3,200 United Epilepsy pace at Roosevelt Raceway Tuesday night.

The time for the mile was 2:06 1-5.

The 7-year-old, driven by Gerald Bostic, caught pacesetting Speedy Boy in the final stride to post his first win of the season in four starts.

Yankee J. H., owned by the Ozark Stables of West Alexandria, Ohio, returned $55. Favored Leica Childs finished third.

Chevrolets Stop Sportsmen, 88-82

Byrne's Chevrolets stayed in contention for second half honors in the YMCA "A" basketball league with an impressive 88-82 victory over a determined Sportsman's Park quintet on the Y boards.

Five of the Chevies scored in double figures but game honors went to Bob Smith, who canned 31 for the losers. Joe Long's 28 markers paced Byrne's.

The Chevrolets held a 42-37 halftime lead and gained a 18-13 third period edge before the teams combined for a 58-point fourth quarter.

Al Brown potted 18, Eddie Parker 14 and Jack Houghtaling and Walt Harder 12 points each for the Chevrolets. Don Komosa added 24 to the Sportsman total and Eric Broberg 14.

The "A" championship will be decided in two upcoming meetings between the Chevies and Ray's Tackle Shop.

Assistant to Succeed Blackburn at Dayton

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Don Donoher, University of Dayton graduate and one-time captain of the Flyers' basketball team, will succeed the late Tom Blackburn as head coach.

The Very Rev. Raymond A. Roesch, university president, announced the appointment of Donoher Tuesday. Donoher, 32, had been Blackburn's assistant for the past two seasons.

Blackburn died March 6 of lung cancer after 17 years at the Flyers' helm.

Sunday Sports Time Now 1:05

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The umpire's cry, "Play ball!", for professional baseball games may be sounded on Sundays at 1:05 p.m., instead of 2 p.m., in New York State, under a new law.

Gov. Rockefeller on Tuesday signed legislation that permits a Sunday starting time of 1:05 p.m. for professional football and baseball games.

The measure also applies to motion picture theaters, theatrical performances and other entertainment, including the World's Fair, scheduled to open next month.

Sen. William F. Condon, R-Westchester, a sponsor of the bill, said it was intended primarily to allow persons participating in and watching sports events to get home at an earlier hour.

One of the first reactions to the measure came from the New York Yankees baseball team which announced that Sunday games this year would start at 1:30 p.m.

Cornell's Jerry Walker All-Ivy Hockey Pick

NEW YORK (AP) — Defenseman Jerry Walker of Cornell's hockey team was one of two unanimous choices picked Tuesday for the 1964 All-Ivy League Ice Hockey Team. The other was defenseman Bob Goudreau of Brown.

Brown also placed forwards Leon Bryant and Terry Chapman on the team. Others picked Tuesday are foward Gene Kinasewich of Harvard and goalie Budge Gere of Dartmouth.

Slump Cure Simple

Golf Has Few Bugaboos for Businesslike Pro, Tony Lema

By BILL McCORMICK
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

NEW YORK (NEA)—Without a golf club in his hands, Tony Lema is just like any other young man self-marked for success in a highly competitive business.

His manager is as sincere as the silk necktie under his buttondown collar. He has the poise and assurance of a junior executive married to the boss' daughter.

Add to that the indefinable quality known as color and you have a good picture of the man many believe will begin to dominate professional golf any minute now.

To the 30-year-old Californian golf has no bugaboos, no haunting mental blocks. It is a straightforward business with no more predicaments than any other occupation.

"All golfers have slumps," said Lema, discussing one of the perennial bugaboos between personal appearances at the International Golf Show at the New York Coliseum. "There's nothing mysterious about them. They come from fatigue—physical or mental or both. Sometimes they hit without warning, but I usually can feel them coming."

* * *

Cure Is Simple

Tony's cure for the ailment is simple.

"I stop playing for a week," he said. "If I feel real tired mentally, I don't even think about golf. After the rest period I practice for a week, going right back to the basics. By the time I finish reviewing the fundamentals, my game is straightened out."

Tony Lema

Lema fears no particular shot, "You can't let any of them scare you," and he has no favorite, "except a two-inch putt."

One of the longest drivers in the game, Lema is paradoxically opposed to the current trend of lengthening courses.

"Any course over 6,800 yards destroys finesse," he said. "How can you get any finesse on a two-iron shot that you have to hit all-out to reach the green? You can't even place wood shots properly on a hole that takes two full ones to reach the green. A lot of the par 5s are so long you're lucky to get a birdie. My idea of a good par 5 is one that offers a fighting chance of scoring an eagle.

Ready for Masters

Right now Lema doesn't think he is at the top of his form, but he believes he will be for the Masters at Augusta April 9-12.

"I'm practically in one of my resting periods now," he said, "but I'll work up to a peak by playing in the Doral Open (Miami, Fla., March 19-22) and the Lima, Peru, Open."

Lema was born in Oakland and was first bitten by the golf bug as a caddie. He was a high school and industrial league baseball player in the San Francisco Bay area. After a hitch with the Marines in Korea he was assistant professional at the San Francisco Golf Club for 13 months. After knocking about here and there, he started on the pro tour in 1957.

For a long while Lema was known as an in-and-outer who maybe didn't take the game too seriously, but since his marriage to an airline hostess named Betty last May no one has had occasion to say this.

His trade mark is buying champagne for writers covering tournaments he wins. He signed a contract with one of the leading French bottlers whereby he gets the stuff for nothing.

That's the kind of businessman Tony Lema is — on and off the golf course.

Seven Harness Drivers Are Fined, Suspended

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The U. S. Trotting Association dealt out penalties Tuesday to seven harness drivers on collusion charges, climaxing the most extensive investigation ever conducted by the racing group.

The probe concerned races last year at Scioto Downs, a plush plant built five years ago south of Columbus.

Walter J. Michael, president of the USTA, handed out five-year suspensions to two harness drivers. The others were slapped with lesser penalties in what Michael described as "the most drastic action ever taken by USTA."

Charged with racing collusion at Scioto and suspended for five years were Edward N. Morgan Jr., 24, of Casstown, Ohio, and Don McKirgan, 23, of Mount Gilead, Ohio.

The suspensions were ordered by Michael at the culmination of hearings. The two drivers also were denied membership by the USTA membership committee.

Michael declined to elaborate further on the racing collusion charges. He said evidence indicated that the irregularities occurred late in the 1963 season and involved about a half-dozen races.

Michael said other penalties covered lesser participation in the infractions or knowledge of wrongdoing that was not reported. Those involved and their penalties:

Arnold George Ursitti, 36, Portsmouth, Ohio, denied membership in the USTA for one year; Daryl Busse, 21, Kingston, Ill., denied membership in the USTA for one year and suspended for the same period; John A. Faine, 37, Mount Cory, Ohio, denied membership in the USTA; Robert L. Wehner, 39, Lima, Ohio, fined $300.

Decisions are expected in a few days in related cases involving Samuel A. Calli, 30, North Vernon, Ind., and Dr. William E. Davis Jr., Columbus, Michael reported.

He said information indicating collusion reached the association at the end of the 1963 season and investigation by the USTA began immediately.

Victor Kolodny of Cincinnati, an attorney representing Morgan, said Morgan has a license to race in Florida and planned to do so until April.

Kolodny said he planned to apply to the Ohio Racing Commission for a driver, trainer and owner license for Morgan.

"If the application is rejected, we will appeal," Kolodny said.

Roosevelt Mails One 54G Check

WESTBURY, N. Y. (AP)—A check for $54,349 was mailed by Roosevelt Raceway Tuesday, closing one of three episodes in the twin double ticket mystery at the harness racing track.

The check was mailed to an unidentified purchaser Saturday night's winning twin double ticket. Two other winners have yet to claim the remainder of the money, totaling $108,699. The holders have until March 31 of next year to redeem their tickets.

"Every once in a while you get a real late payoff on those things," said Joe Lynch, the track's mutuel manager. He recalled that a ticket for $9,189 bought last Dec. 4, still hasn't been cashed. The purchaser has only two weeks in which to redeem the ticket. Otherwise, the money will go to the state.

Canada, Scotland Get Curl'ng Wins

CALGARY (AP) — Canada and Scotland continued their winning ways Tuesday night, heading toward a climactic battle in the 1964 International Curling Championships as Canada trounced Sweden 13-6 and Scotland whipped the United States 11-5.

The third-round victories left the unbeaten leaders out of reach of their four rivals. Sweden, the United States and Norway owned 1-2 won-lost records and Switzerland was winless in three starts.

Scotland and Canada meet Wednesday night in the last draw of the round-robin preliminary.

Switzerland lost its battle to emerge from the basement when Norway posted a 13-10 third - round victory Tuesday night.

In Tuesday afternoon matches, the United States defeated Sweden 9-6, Scotland crushed Switzerland 22-2 and Canada whipped Norway 19-2.

The Americans, led by Skip Robert Magie, Jr. of Duluth, Minn., meet Norway Wednesday afternoon. In other games Sweden opposes Scotland and Switzerland faces Canada.

Congenital Heart Defect?

Brother, Sister Die Hours of Each Other

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (AP) — A congenital heart defect was suggested today as the possible cause of the deaths of a brother and sister within two hours of each other here. In two generations, six other members of the same family also have died suddenly.

In Richburg, N.Y., a rare heart defect caused the death of Darrell Thompson, 11, whose two brothers had died previously from the same ailment.

Told of Death, Succumbs

Edward Ambrose Martin, 15, a husky sophomore at St. Augustine's St. Joseph High School, collapsed and died Monday after running only 200 yards of a mile-and-a-half cross-country event.

His sister, Angelia Diane, 14, at home recovering from mumps, appeared to go into shock when her parents told her of his death. She was rushed to a hospital, where breathing was restored, but she was dead within two hours.

Another sister, Penny, 9, was found dead in shallow water in which she had been wading during a family outing in 1957. The cause of her death never was determined.

Dr. James J. Devito, the family doctor, said "several other members of the family have expired suddenly, with no known cause. Five children from two sisters and three adults have been stricken under similar circumstances in two generations."

He suggested that the ailment might be a congenital heart defect.

Had Enlarged Heart

The body of young Thompson, of Bolivar, N.Y., was found on the lawn of a garage at his school in Richburg.

Dr. Edwin F. Comstock Jr., coroner, said the boy had an enlarged heart. So did two of his brother, Dana, 7, and Ray, 8, who died in 1955 and 1959, respectively.

Dr. Kurt Zinner, a Wellsville, N.Y., cardiologist, said the ailment was "not due to any known cause." He described it as "familial"—peculiar to some members of certain families.

Cold Canada Air Drops Mercury in East U. S. Areas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A wave of late winter cold air which surged from Canada into the heart of the nation fanned out toward the East Coast today, plummeting temperatures toward the zero mark.

Many readings ranging from zero to 10 above were reported in the Midwest and New England.

The coldest was International Falls, Minn., where the mercury dropped to —5 just two days before the official start of spring.

Spring officially arrives at 9:10 a.m. EST Friday.

Temperatures were below freezing from the Dakotas, northwestern Nebraska and northern Missouri eastward through the central and northern Appalachians.

Maine was the icebox in New England, with Millinocket reporting 6 above and Houlton 8.

Cold waves also struck Western Maryland, northwestern Virginia and West Virginia.

Snow flurries occured along the southern and eastern shores of the Great Lakes and from the upper Ohio Valley into New England. In New York State, snow slowed traffic in Binghamton, Rochester and Syracuse.

One inch of new snow in Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., gave that community 19 inches on the ground.

Damage Put at $4 Million

Wind Forecast Poses New Threat to Coast

LOS ANGELES (AP) —Firemen raced today against forecasts of more high winds to secure boundaries of three disastrous brush fires before gusts can churn them up again.

Fires Contained Tuesday

Three wind-whipped fires were contained Tuesday after destroying at least 20 homes and charring 11,600 acres of brush.

Gusts up to 100 miles an hour fanned the blazes Monday in the foothills northeast of Los Angeles.

Insurance companies estimate damage at $4 million.

Looking at forecasts of 25 m.p.h. winds for today, County Fire Chief Keith Klinger said: "It's a race against time to make sure that all hot spots are extinguished."

Two hundred firemen remain on the Weldon Canyon area blaze, 20 miles northeast of Los Angeles, where 2,500 acres of watershed were burned over.

Mop Up Hot Spots

Another 300 mopped up hot spots on the severely-hit Burbank-Glendale areas, just 12 miles from downtown Los Angeles in the Verdugo and San Rafael Hills.

All the homes burned were in the vicinity of the two cities, in the 7,000-acre Verdugo Hills fire and the 2,100-acre San Rafael Hills blaze.

The third fire swept to within three-quarters of a mile of the San Fernando Valley community of Granada Hills before firemen held the line. No structures were damaged there.

Damage estimates varied. The County Fire Department said 20 homes were destroyed and 10 severely damaged in the cities of Glendale and Burbank and the Eagle Rock section of Los Angeles.

Objections Heard On Private Water Firm for Tillson

Formation of a private water company to service 20 homes in a Tillson real estate sub-division was opposed by the Town of Rosendale Board at a public hearing Tuesday 11 a. m. at the town hall.

Kenneth K. Clark, Tillson real estate developer has filed with the New York State Water Resources Commission to establish the company within the boundaries of a proposed town water district which goes to a vote April 21.

Clark has operated the system for the past eight to 10 years without licensing. He started action for a private company November, 1963 and filed petition with the state commission in January of this year.

Action on the town water district was started July 10 when 51 Tillson residents petitioned the town board to make study. The proposed district will be voted on by property owners in the affected area April 21.

The hearing Tuesday was conducted before Terrance Curran of the state water resources commission with five residents of the Clark development and 10 other interested persons in attendance. William P. Curran, town counsel presented the town's objections. Alfred Hafke of New Paltz was counsel for Clark.

The town contends that it would withdraw objections to the private company if Clark would waive claim for damages and lose of income. The water district would not utilize any part of the Clark water system, but would have its own sources and distribution.

Clark would not waive damages for loss of business.

Harry Edinger of the Ulster County Health Department and Augustus Brinnier and Christus Larios of the firm of Brinnier and Larios were in attendance.

The state commissioner will issue its decision at a later date.

Highland Seeking Bids on Work For Playground

Highland's Board of Education is planning site development, but no decision has been reached on the area where the work will be done. The present playground area and an adjacent site acquired last year are under study.

Board president, Leo Rizzo noted the two areas make up 6.5 acres combined. Only $5,000 is budgeted for site development.

Rizzo was quoted as saying, "It will be impossible to do work on the entire playground tract for this amount, so the board is seeking bids on work at both areas and then will decide what will be done."

Bids will be received by the Board an April 15.

Found Dead in Crib

COBLESKILL, N.Y. (AP)—Dale A. Tripp, 8-weeks-old, was found dead Tuesday in his crib at his home near this Schoharie County village.

Dr. Ray Dougall, coroner's physician, said the infant had suffocated after becoming entangled in his blanket.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin D. Tripp.

Hatch Bypassed, Onondaga Picks Attorney for Seat

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — A Liverpool attorney, Henry C. Fadden, will be the official Republican candidate for the Assembly seat now held by Robert Hatch Jr., also a Republican.

Onondaga County GOP leaders Tuesday endorsed the 45-year-old Fadden, who is trying for his first elective office.

The leaders ignored the off-and-on-again candidacy of Hatch, who had said he was prepared for a primary fight if he should fail to win party endorsement.

Hatch had said he would not run again after he was the subject of a brief missing persons alarm a month ago. His wife had told State Police that Hatch had been missing for 11 days.

However later Hatch said the alarm was a mix-up and that he had been away on a business trip. He said Monday he would seek re-election after all.

Columbia University was chartered as King's College in 1754 by King George II of England.

Approves Name Change

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Hollandia, Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters during much of World War II, is getting another name.

When Indonesia took West New Guinea over from the Dutch in 1963, it renamed the territory West Irian and Hollandia, the capital, became Kotabaru, or New Town.

ANTARA, the Indonesian news agency, announced today that President Sukarno had approved changing Kotabaru to Sukarnopura, or the Gate of Sukarno.
